

The Mount Joy

BULLETIN

SECOND SECTION

VOL. 63. NO. 28

Mount Joy, Penna., Wednesday December 11, 1963

NEWS IN MARIETTA

Fire At Coin Laundry

The Marietta Fire Co. responded to a call at 8:15 p.m. Saturday to extinguish a fire at The Big Bundle, a coin operated laundry, located at 42 W. Market Street, Marietta.

Firemen said that baby clothes being dried ignited. The clothes were tossed to the floor before being doused by firemen. The floor and the dried were damaged, but no estimate was given.

The laundry is operated by Mrs. Edna M. Heltzle, 108 Eisenhower Blvd., Lancaster. The clothes belonged to Jim Hougentogler, 559 Union St., Columbia.

Fire Chief Clarence Smuck was in charge of the fire fighting efforts.

Christmas Eve

There will be a special Christmas Eve service Tuesday evening, Dec 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the Zion Lutheran church in Marietta. There will be selections by the junior and senior choirs, and organ and piano numbers. The public is invited.

Plan Yule Baskets

Members of the Marietta Community Friends, met this week to discuss the distribution of Christmas baskets to the needy and shut-ins. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. James R. Baker, Fairview Ave. Baskets will be packed on Dec. 21, and distributed by the Jay-Cees the same afternoon.

Yule Customs Are Different

In some countries Christmas gifts are given twice.

In Italy, children and their elders, while waiting for the main gift-giving day, Jan. 6, draw small presents from a jar called the "Urn of Fate" on Christmas Eve.

The French exchange gifts on New Year's, but Pere Noel visits youngsters on Christmas Eve.

In England, servants and tradespeople are remembered on Dec. 26, Boxing Day, with boxes of money.

Results and discoveries originating in the Veterans Administration vast program of medical research are made known to the world in more than 3,000 papers published in medical and scientific journals every year.

E. Pete Asks Street Aid

East Petersburg Borough Council Tuesday night asked the county for financial aid for maintenance of three-borough streets.

Approximately $6,000 will be sought for maintenance of High and Carpenter streets and Jeanette Drive.

In another matter, preliminary plans for a water main in the Sunset Beauty Development were approved.

Melvin H. Weaver, 6211 Jeanette Drive, was named to a 5-year term on the Borough Authority, starting January 1.

James Smith, secretary of the Suburban Lancaster Joint Sewer Board, briefly explained.

(Turn to page 2)

Expect Action On E'town Sewer

An ordinance authorizing construction of a 27-inch sanitary sewer main a mile and a half long is scheduled to be approved by Elizabethtown Borough Council at a special meeting at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 26.

The new main, which is expected to cost approximately $250,000 will augment an existing 15-inch line, and will go through the borough to Elizabethtown's sewage treatment plant along Conoy Creek in West Donegal Twp.

Borough Manager John Kane, this morning said the project will be financed with funds to be borrowed from a bank. The loan, he said, will be paid off with sewer rentals.

Bids for construction, he said, have been opened, but a contract has not yet been awarded. Low bid, he said, is $162,000. Added to this, he said, will be costs for right-of-way.

Kane said the U. S. Public Health Service has been requested to give the borough financial aid for the work. Federal aid, the borough manager explained, is expected to be 30 per cent on some portions of the work.

The new 8,500-foot line, Kane said, is designed to meet the expanding needs of the borough.

Seventy Percent Live In Town

Seventy percent of Americans live in town.

Many haven't set foot on a farm in years, but everyone has a big stake in agriculture, says Dr. Russell E. Larson, Dean, College of Agriculture, and Acting Director of the Cooperative Extension Service, the Pennsylvania State University.

He believes "The farmer's well-being affects everyone's job, most businesses, and the price paid for things. He's also the custodian of precious soil and water resources that must be used wisely now, and kept for future Americans for recreation, forests, wildlife, and for open space around cities.

(Turn to page 14)

NEWS IN MANHEIM

Women's Club Meets

"Pretty Packages," a talk given by Miss Carol Weaver, featured the December meeting of the Manheim Women's Club in the social room of St. Richard's Catholic church. Christmas music was provided by Miss Delphine Ritter, assisted by her sister, Miss Mildred Ritter, and Miss Elizabeth Davis. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Lester Hackman, Mrs. Harold Haatainen, Mrs. Eugene Hollinger, Mrs. Robert Eshelman, Mrs. H. H. Martin, Jr., Mrs. Bernard Reese, Mrs. Ammon Shenenberger, Mrs. Clarence Shonk and Mrs. R. Robinson Walter.

To Conference

Barry Haldeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Haldeman, Manheim R3, is one of 24 students from McPherson College at McPherson, Kansas, who will attend the Brethren Student Christian conference Nov. 28 - Dec. 1 at North Manchester, Indiana. Barry is a junior at the college.

Wins Contest

Miss Judy Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard

Martin, 177 South Charlotte Street, Manheim, was judged the winner of the "Voice Of Democracy Contest," sponsored nationally by the Veterans of Foreign Wars for Lancaster County.

She is a senior at Manheim Central high school and her further plans call for a nursing career.

Her entry was entered by Post 5956, Manheim and was awarded top spot by judges at Ephrata, on Dec. 3.

She will now enter the finals for the entire state of Pennsylvania, to be held in January. The winner of the state finals participate in the National with a $3,000 scholarship to be awarded.

Completes Course

Pvt. Kenneth M. Wike, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin D. Wike, who live at 416 South Main street, Manheim, has completed advance combat training at Fort Hood, Tex., November 16.

The 17-year-old soldier entered the Army in August of 1962.

(Turn to page 2)

"Over the Back Fence"

by Max Smith

THE GREATEST CATTLE show in the world took place last week in Chicago at the International Fat Stock Show. The official steer judge was Professor Herman Purdy of Penn State University. It is a distinguished honor to be selected as one of the judges at this great livestock event. Professor Purdy is enjoying the reputation as one of the best cattle judges in the world today. All Pennsylvanians should be proud of this man who is on the faculty at Penn State. He is a great asset to the livestock industry of Pennsylvania.

Max Smith

FREEZING WEATHER is at hand and all dairymen should bear in mind the danger from allowing the udder of the dairy cow to become chilled and irritated. The milking herd may be turned out daily for exercise for a short time but the cows should not be permitted to lie down on the cold ground. For the same reason they should not be allowed to lie down in the barn on bare, cold, concrete floors. A chilled udder is more susceptible to a number of inflammations and infections. Keep plenty of bedding under the milking cows at all times.

use of minerals in their rations. The mineral requirements vary between species of animals and between animals of the same kind; this

(Turn to page 15)

THE END of the year is almost at hand and many record books will be closed out. Farm records will be studied by many good farmers who will try to determine their mistakes of 1963 and use the account book as a guide in planning for the coming year. We urge all farmers to make good use of their records, not only for Income Tax purposes, but to do a better job next year. The records show where too much money was spent and where net income may be increased. By the way, it's time to be getting your Farm Account Book for 1964.

NEARLY ALL kinds of livestock respond to the proper

- BOOKMOBILE
FIRST TUESDAY
 Mount Joy Memorial Park
 1 to 8 p.m.
SECOND TUESDAY
 Mastersonville Fire Hall
 10 to 12 a.m.
 and
 Manheim Square
 12:30 to 4 p.m.
THIRD TUESDAY
 Bainbridge Post Office
 10 to 12 a.m.
 and
 Marietta Square
 12:30 to 4 p.m.
FOURTH TUESDAY
 Landisville Fire Hall
 10 to 12:30 a.m.
 and
 East Petersburg Bank
 12:30 to 4 p.m.

The WORRY CLINIC
 Case Records of a Psychologist

By - George W. Crane, Ph.D., M. D.

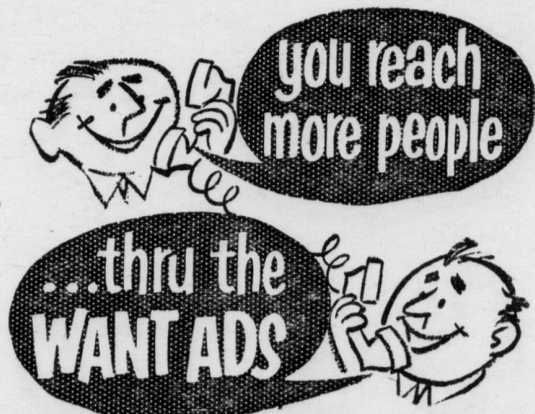

Paul is in the same boat with millions of young men. So he needs to become a social detective and pay more attention to a girl's costume than to foreign sports cars. By using the strategy below, Paul soon was able to win the most popular girls away from the matinee idols and campus athletes. Try it, men;

CASE N-426; Paul G., aged 18, is a college freshman. "Dr. Crane," he said, "I am the quiet type. So when I go on a date, I usually don't have much to say.

"As a result, I shun dates unless I am double dating with another fellow. Then I rely on him to carry on most of the conversation.

"But tomorrow night I am dating solo so I am scared. The girl is very attractive and I'd like to make a good impression on her.

"So how can I do it?" Well, girls as well as boys are all born with that same impression on her. (Turn to page 8)

MORE People READ
 FARM & HOME NEWS
 CLASSIFIEDS

CALL MOUNT JOY 653-9661