DISCRETION
Open your purse and your mouth cautiously; and your stock of wealth and reputation shall, at least in repute, be great. —Zimmerman

CONTENTMENT
True contentment depends not upon what we have. A tub was large enough for Diogenes, but a world was too little for Alexander.

The average man has three colds a year, and they cost industry approximately 90 million working days annually.

PLANT APHIDS
To rid a plant of aphids, save the soapy water when you wash your stockings or undies at night. In the morning, when the water is cool, pour it over the plant and the soil.

SMALL RUGS
Small throw rugs that have a tendency to slip along the floor can be cured by attaching several jar rubbers to the underside or by shellacking the reverse side.

PAINT ON SHOES
If, while you're painting, you manage to get some spots on your leather shoes, you can remove these paint spots by wetting the head of a kitchen match and rubbing this over the stains.

The reading of newspapers, according to speech authorities, is one of the greatest aids to the increase of one's vocabulary.
