TEMPORARY STORAGE

When you need temporary storage, don't put a lot of money in it, advises Helen E. Bell, Penn State extension home management specialist. An inexpensive fiberboard chest may add storage space and design interest to a room. A low-cost metal cabinet used for storing baking supplies can be moved later into the basement or utility room for flower arrangement supplies.

KNITWEAR STORAGE

To store knitwear and stretch fabric garments, fold with lengthwise stretch and put in drawers or on shelves. Don't put on hangers, for they may stretch out of size and shape.

SMALL EGGS ARE GOOD BUY

Small eggs sometimes called "pullet eggs" are usually a good buy, says Herbert C. Jordan, extension poultryman at The Penna. State University. Small eggs are of exceptionally high quality and at 35 cents a dozen are a good buy. When small eggs are 35 cents a dozen they're equal in cost to large eggs selling for 46 cents a dozen. Three small or pullet eggs are about the same as two large eggs.
