

All dressed up for EASTER

We know a dour old philosopher who always has something nasty to say about what makes others happy. His latest diatribe is against folks "parading to Church in all their Easter finery."

But he won't get far with his complaints. For, strange as this might sound, the modern Easter "outfit" has its root in the very meaning of the day.

Easter has always stood for newness of life. It marks Christ's victory over death. It promises an eternal destiny to those who embrace the Faith.

Easter puts old things away and brings out the new — as the Earth sends forth its verdure — as God reveals our Hope.

And if there is a glow of happiness in wearing that new dress or hat or suit . . . well, it's only a hint of the joy that comes with finding that New Life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
