● Of This 'n That

(From page 1)

We were skeptics — but we have been convinced! It really works! We find ourselves with a new hobby to be enjoyed, and with the most "colorful" months of the year stretching just ahead!

Lodge will be the Republican presidential candidate in the November election!

That is, he would be, if the eighth graders at the Annex could do the selecting!

In a "mock" election last week, sections 8E and 8F debated the merits and weaknesses of Goldwater, Lodge, Nixon, Rockefeller, Scranton, Smith and Stassen, and then voted.

Lodge got a total of 38 votes. Next was Nixon with 33, then Goldwater with 25, Scranton with 15, Rockefeller with 9, Smith and Stassen with 3 each. Do "coming events cast their shadows before?" Perhaps so, even though they are only eighth grade "shadows"!!

We understand that "chain letters" are circulating widely in the Mount Joy areas at the present time. We were told that the bonanzas they promise vary from land-slides of "green stamps" to tea towels!

Checking with the post-office, we find that such letters are "illegal" from the official standpoint, but very few people know it, so they continue to participate in the various "get rich quick" schemes!

MISS TEEN AGER

... answers questions about Junior Miss etiquette, grooming and interests.

Q. My family moved recently, and now I'm the new girl in a big school where I don't know a soul. There's a mixer next week and I just know that if I go I'll get the bench-warmer award for 1964. My mother says I should go, but wouldn't it be better to wait until I know at least a few people?

A. The mixer can be your chance to make a successful, and painless, debut at the new school. Simply because you are new, everyone will be eager to meet you. To make sure everything gets off to the right start, be extra careful about dressing for the mixer. Wear something you especially like, so you'll feel your prettiest. And, of course, check to make sure you know what kind of dress is expected. Once there, don't be shy about introducing yourself to people. A cheerful, "Hi, I'm Mary Newgal," is all the starter you'll need.

Q. When I go to a tea or any other party where people leave at different times I never know how to say goodbye to the hostess. Usually I just hang around until I can leave with other people and leave the exit lines to them. What should I say when I have to leave alone?

A. Don't feel you have to make a speech. Just tell your

Choirs United For Easter

The choirs of St. Mark's E. U. B. Church, Mount Joy, and St. Paul's E.U.B. Church of Elizabethtown will unite to present an Easter Cantata, "The Risen King", by Schneckner, on Easter Sunday evening at 7:30. The cantata will be presented at the Mount Joy Church, with the Rev. C. E. Ulrich in charge of the devotional period. Clifford M. Schmid will direct the choirs, with Donald C. Eby at the organ.

In addition to the cantata each choir will sing two anthems. St. Mark's Choir will present "Breath of God" (Saterren) and "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked" (O'Hara). "Christ Arose" (Gorton) will be sung by St. Paul's Choir. A trio, composed of Mrs. Paul Herr, Mrs. Gloria Milspaw and Mrs. Ogier Norris will sing "The Cross Was His Own" (Jones).

Members of St. Paul's Choir are: Alma Rice, Judy Park, Gretchen Carskadon, Arba Herr, Gloria Milspaw, Julia Helm, Jackie Stauffer, Peggy Risser, Kitty Rife, Nelda Boyer, Vonnie Norris, Jinny Roland, Ann Fink, Florence Cain, Jestena Yeagley, Dolores Alleman, Betty Hixson, Ann Smith, Edith Herr, Estella Nissley, Marian Raffensperger, Hazel Byron, Ogier Norris, Ollie Stillwagner, Gerald Roland, Al Dervire, Joe Helm, Warren Alleman, Elvin Yeagley, Marlin Shank, Dwight Shoop and Ken Ebersole.

St. Mark's members participating are: Carole Musser, Barbara Engle, Karen Yingst, Linda Zerphey, Darlene Minnich, Judy Buchenauer, Bette Mateer, Anna Mae Eby, Elsie Bentzel, Arlene Schmid, Eileen Martin, Luella Witmer, Jean Pricio, Joan Eby, Ruth Balsbaugh, Shirley Roth, Mary Ann Kauffman, Glenn Forney, Kenneth Roth, Joseph Buchenauer, Erma Buchenauer, Robert Adams, Warren Bentzel, Donald Martin and Donald Musser.

The program was presented at St. Paul's Church, Elizabethtown, on Palm Sunday evening, with George Sload directing and Miss Edith Herr serving as accompanist. The Rev. G. Edgar Hertzler was in charge of the devotions.
