CLARENCE E. DAVIES

Funeral services were held April 7, for Clarence E. Davies Jr., nineteen, Florin Ward, who was killed when his car crashed into a tree early Saturday morning.

Police said Davies was seen by a friend in Elizabethtown shortly before the accident which occurred at 2:30 a.m. He was believed enroute to his home from Elizabethtown when the crash occurred.

Dr. Thomas W. O'Connor, Mount Joy, deputy coroner, said death resulted from a broken neck and multiple leg fractures.

Mount Joy Police Chief,

Bruce Kline said Davies' auto was "definitely traveling at an excessive rate of speed" when it hit a tree in the Florin ward. Kline said skid marks showed the car crossed from the east-bound to the westbound lane of Route 230 and then back again before it crashed into the tree, just east of the Cities Service station.

Police said skid marks extended for 150 feet. The 1952 car was demolished.

Davies was employed as a punch press operator at the New Standard Corp., Mount Joy.

He was born in Lancaster, a son of Clarence and Dorothy Yost Davies Sr., of Falmouth. He resided in Mount Joy for a year and a half.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Steven Charles; a brother, Jacob, of Falmouth; three sisters, Dorothy, wife of Gilbert Wagner, of Bainbridge; Emma Jean, wife of Wilbur Kline, Mount Joy, and Miss Barbara Davies, of Falmouth.

Funeral services were held from the Sheetz funeral home Tuesday afternoon and burial was made in the Mount Joy cemetery.

MARY FRANCES ZELLER

Mrs. Mary Frances Zeller, 66, widow of George B. Zeller, 207 Birchland Avenue, died Thursday, April 2, at 10 p.m. in St. Joseph's Hospital after a brief illness.

Her husband died in 1952. Born in Mount Joy, a daughter of the late Christian J. and Catharine Fissel Gillums, she was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Mount Joy.

Surviving are two children, James R., Newark, Del.; and Catharine G., head of the Donegal high school English Department, at home; two grandchildren and these sisters and brothers, Elwood T. Gillums, Lancaster; Christine, wife of Paris Gruber, Samuel C. F. Gillums, and Mrs. Violet Foster, all of Mount Joy.

Funeral services were held at the convenience of the family in charge of the Sheetz funeral home. Burial was made in the Eberle cemetery.

MARTHA S. ESHLEMAN

Mrs. Martha S. Eshleman, 69, wife of Walter L. Eshleman, 321 West Donegal St., died at the Lancaster General Hospital Saturday, April 4, at 2:30 p.m. She had been ill for several years.

Born in Rapho Twp., she was the daughter of the late William H. and Mary Kraybill Strickler. She and her husband would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this year. She had been a resident of Mount Joy since her marriage.

A member of St. Mark's E.

U. B. Church, Mount Joy, she was also a charter member of the Mount Joy American Legion Auxiliary.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one son, Robert S., Mount Joy; two grandsons, a great-grandson and these brothers and sisters: P. Kraybill Strickler; Mrs. Fannie Myers; Laura M., wife of Rev. Frank Witmer; and Nora V., wife of Charles Eby all of Mount Joy; Warren K., Elizabethtown; Elva K., wife of Robert L. Stevenson, of Wynnewood; and Mrs. Mary Barto, Wyncote.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Nissley funeral home and burial was made in Mount Joy cemetery.

LUDWIG BLANZ

Ludwig "Dutch Louie" Blanz, 73, Mount Joy R1, near Donegal Springs, died unexpectedly Friday, April 3.

Blanz was rolling the rear lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur I. Beahm, on Donegal Springs Road, when he collapsed. Dr. Thomas O'Connor, Mount Joy deputy coroner, said death was due to a heart attack.

Blanz formerly resided in Mount Joy until about fifteen years ago. Since then he has been residing alone on a farm now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ober, Mount Joy R1.

He was a laborer by occupation, doing odd jobs throughout the Mount Joy area.

There are no known survivors.

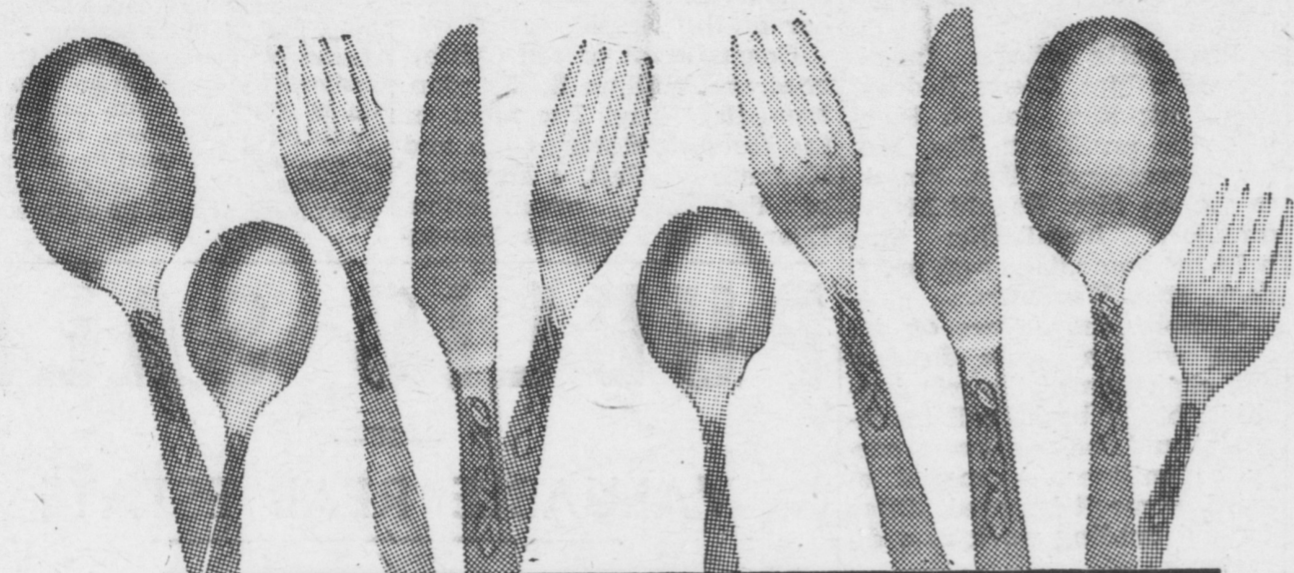

Funeral rites were held on Wednesday afternoon from the Heilig funeral home. Burial was made in the Mount Joy cemetery.

WILLIAM COWELL

A message was received in Mount Joy last week that William Cowell, who formerly lived in this community, died Thursday, April 2, in a Harrisburg hospital, where he had been since 1932.

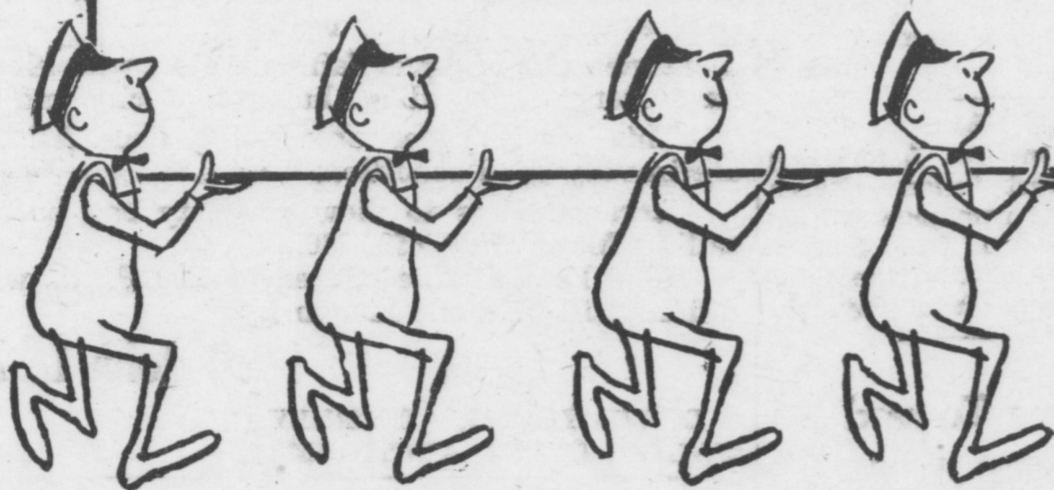

He was buried at Harrisburg.

A Los Angeles factory is making false hems to give skirts that new look. Ought to be just the thing to go with this phony prosperity.
