ROTARY

A trip to the New York World's Fair was given Mount Joy Rotarians Tuesday noon by Norman Rowe, special representative of the Bell Telephone company.

Using colored transparencies taken from architectural drawings of many of the fair buildings and pavilions, the speaker gave a preview of what to expect when the multi-billion dollar fair opens later this spring.

The speaker was introduced by John G. Hart, vice-president and program chairman.

Donald and Ronald Allemen, sons of Mrs. Fern Allemen, 345 W. Donegal Street, will be visiting Washington, D.C., this weekend as members of the Milton Hershey School varsity band, which has been invited to participate in the annual Cherry Blossom Festival.

Donald is a sophomore at the all-boy school. This is his first year as a member of the varsity organization. He is a member of the color guard.

Ronald, also a sophomore, is a member of the drill team, which performs with the band. This is his first year with the organization.

LIONS

The Mount Joy Lions Club held its annual auction Tuesday night, April 7. Jay Meckley had charge of the meeting and Harold Keller acted as auctioneer. Items from comic books to pies, cakes & cookies were sold. Bidding was very active and everyone present joined in the fun.

When the fire and smoke all cleared away the clerk, Arthur Sprecher announced the sale had amounted to $78.

The meeting was called to order by the President Lloyd Derr.

It was announced that ice cream sale has been postponed to Monday, April 27, due to inclement weather.

Charter night will be held Monday evening, April 27, and will be a ladies night. Literature was passed out to every Lion about the Lancaster County Eye Bank, which is sponsored by the Lions in District 14-D.

Society of Farm Women 6, met April 4 at the home of Mrs. E. Musser Heisey, R. D. 2, Mount Joy. Mrs. Mark Geyer, president, was in charge, with Mrs. Elvin Keener leading the devotions and Mrs. Henry Saylor in charge of music. Roll Call was answered with favorite cakes. Mrs. Pauline Keener was auctioneer for the day.

Guests who were present: Miss Rhoda Heisey, Miss Rhoda Nissley, Mrs. Walter Becker, Mrs. John Heisey, Miss Betsy Heisey, Mrs. Ethel Gantz. Miss Jean Geyer was the speaker and gave a very interesting talk on her work in the slum area of Chicago among children of migrant workers. She is a teacher now in the East Earl Township elementary school. She showed slides of her Chicago work.

The next meeting will be held May 2 at the Elizabethtown EUB church, at which time members of Society #19 will be guests. The program will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Horst and daughters of Hershey R1.

Council

It was pointed out, too, that children will be using a sidewalk to be constructed from the Grand View school area to the east end of Church street in Florin. Absence of sidewalks in front of the residences on Church street was discussed.

Some motorists are so poor that they can hardly keep body and chassis together.
