LEAMAN — METZLER

Mrs. Orpha Jane Metzler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Metzler, Manheim R2, became the bride of Joel Rottmund Leaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Leaman, of Rheems, in the First Presbyterian Church, Mount Joy, on Saturday, April 18, at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Richard A. Todd officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Carol Ann Metzler, Manheim R2, maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ella Jean Metzler, Goshen, Ind.; Miss Joyce Marie Metzler, Kalamazoo, Mich., both sisters of the bride; Miss Sheila Mohr, of Bainbridge; and Miss Patricia Fetterolf, Lancaster.

Serving as best man was Jacob L. Garman, Rheems. Ushers were Glenn David Metzler, brother of the bride, Manheim R2; Robert Miller, Elizabethtown R2; Richard Garber, Elizabethtown R1, and Kenneth Aungst, Elizabethtown R1.

The bride wore a white pure silk over peau de soie gown, styled with a scalloped portrait neckline, fitted bodice, long sleeves, natural waist highlighted by a bow at center waistline; floor-length sheath skirt, and French court chapel train; trimmed with pearl clustered alencon lace motifs at the neckline, front skirt and edge of train. A Spanish crown held her fingertip alencon lace mantilla. She carried a white lace-covered Bible with a white cattleya orchid, Sterling Silver roses, and white hyacinth florets.

Mrs. Glen Snowden was organist and Lloyd Weidman, soloist. Following a reception at Hostetter's banquet hall, the couple left on a wedding trip to the South.

The bride is a graduate of Manheim Central high school and Lancaster City School District School of Practical Nursing.

The bridegroom was graduated from Elizabethtown Area high school and Wranglin and Marshall College. He is employed by RCA.

The couple will reside at 130 N. River St., Maytown.

HAINES — DUVALL

The marriage of Miss Joyce L. Duvall, daughter of Mrs. Edward Rush, Holtwood R1, and the late Howard W. Duvall, and Karl I. Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl N. Haines, Mount Joy R1, was solemnized on Saturday, April 18, at 3 p.m. in St. Catherine of Siena Church, Quarryville, with the Rev. John R. Campion officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Edgar W. Rush. She wore a silk organza gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline with lace appliques, long sleeves, full-length skirt with large back bow, cabbage roses and pearl studded lace appliques, terminating in a chapel train. Her fingertip silk illusion veil was held by a tiny pillbox of organza petals, trimmed with pearls and crystals. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid & ivy.

Maid of honor was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Sheryl Haines, Mount Joy R1, and bridesmaid was Miss Martha Foulk, Quarryville R3. Serving as best man was a cousin of the bridegroom, Sherwood Espenshade, Elizabethtown. Ushers were Wilbur Huss, uncle of the bride, Holtwood R1, and Wilbur Nissly, cousin of the bridegroom, Mount Joy. Miss Debbie Lefever was organist.

A reception was held in the church social hall. After a wedding trip the couple will reside at Holtwood R1.

Man who has this thing with books stopped by. Seems he's been buying books over the years and now a lot of them are in packing boxes in his storage room. By latest count 416 of them in 17 boxes. Darned nuisance, he says. What he needs are built-in bookcases which is why he came to County Farmers Bank to ask for a home improvement loan. If bookcases are your need ... or a new roof ... a finished room ... a porch ... patio ... dormers ... driveway ... new heating unit ... whatever you're thinking of doing to improve your home ... if the need for ready cash is the only thing that stands between you and your heart's desire, now's the time to ask County Farmers Bank for a home improvement loan. Talk to Warren Bentzel or anyone in our Loan Department ... you'll find them most hospitable and ready to help you protect the big investment you have in a home.

P.S. The man with the bookcase problem will soon be enjoying books "off the shelf" ... thanks to one of our loans.
