

Landisville-Salunga

Mrs. William K. Risser

Miss Linda Stehman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan J. Stehman, 2817 Marietta Ave., has been elected president of the student council of Reading hospital School of Nursing for the coming year.

A 1960 graduate of Hempfield high school, Miss Stehman will receive a B.S. degree in 1965. She is taking part in the five year program in nursing with Albright college, Reading.

Boy Scout Troop #41 of Landisville will hold a hoagie sale Saturday, May 9. Orders are being taken by any member of the troop.

The Luther League of Zion Lutheran church spent Saturday, May 2 in Allentown, touring the Good Shepherd Home, Muhlenberg College, and other points of interest. Members left the church at 9:30 a.m.

The Couples Club of Zion Lutheran Church, Landisville met at Mount Joy, on Sunday May 3 at 8 p.m. for a group bowling party. Refreshments were served afterwards at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bidding were chairmen, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baer, Mr. and Mrs. David Shafer and Mr. and Mrs. John Butz.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Koser, of Landisville, observed their 71st wedding anniversary on Thursday, April 30.

Koser, ninety, is president of the Lititz Mutual Insurance Co. and vice president of the Mount Joy Union National bank. He also is an officer in three other insurance companies in the county and is still active as a surveyor.

Mrs. Koser was hospitalized last November and is still confined to bed at home while recuperating. The Kosers had no special observance of their anniversary.

Members of the Hempfield Union Junior high Science Club planted a golden chain tree on the school's front lawn recently in observance of Arbor Day. The tree was a gift from Root's Nursery, Manheim R1. Sam Neff is president of the club and the adviser is Leo Eckert.

Miss Barbara Joan King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert S. King, Manheim R1 became the bride of James William Kauffman, Columbia R1, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kauffman in St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Manheim recently, with the Rev. Norman Bucher, Jr. officiating. Both are graduates of Hempfield high school, class of 1961.

The staff of the Hempfield Day Camp held a training session recently at the home of the director, Mrs. Walter Bulson, 903 Forest Road. The camp will be held at Camp Algonquin from June 15-19 and from June 22-26.

Charles G. Elliott, of 315 Stoney Battery Rd., Landisville has been named general chairman of the Boy Scouts' 1964 Western District Camporee, scheduled for May 22-24 at Kiwanis Park in Elizabethtown.

More than 400 scouts from Lancaster city and county are expected to take part in camporee activities ranging from physical fitness exercises to merit badge demonstrations.

The Hempfield Union school board met recently and adopted a tentative budget that is $200,000 higher than last year and will necessitate a four-mill property tax hike on a new tax.

The proposed new tax will be a one percent real estate transfer tax. The tax rate will be jumped from 31 mills to 35 mills.

On Monday May 4, the employees of Hempfield Union School district got chest x-rays. Because of these x-rays the children were dismissed at 1:30 p.m. There was no afternoon kindergarten on the above date.

School Calendar Is Adopted

If, by chance, you are making your vacation schedule or for some other reason you're interested — school will begin in Donegal district next fall on September 1.

That was one of the features of the 1964-'65 school calendar, which was adopted Thursday night, April 16, at the April meeting of the Donegal School Board.

School will be recessed on November 26 and 27 for Thanksgiving and from Dec. 24 to Jan. 1 (both dates included) for Christmas.

There will be no classes either Washington's or Lincoln's birthdays and there will be Easter vacation April 14 through 19th, (both dates included).

School will close on June 8, 1965.

The schedule calls for 180 days for pupils.

Attends Seminar

Visual Training and Reading Achievement was the theme of the educational seminar held Sunday in Harrisburg at the Penn Harris Hotel by the Dept. of Education, Penna. Optometric Association.

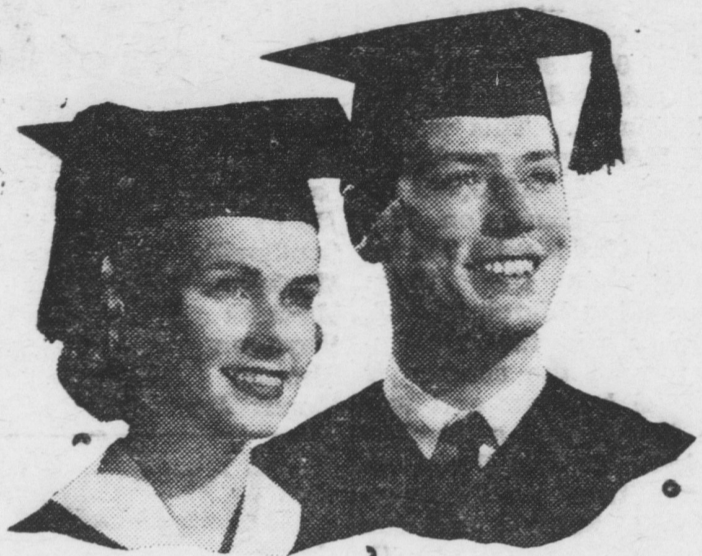

Dr. John Stauffer of Mount Joy represented the Lancaster county Optometric Society.

RECORD HOP

There will be a Record Hop, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, on Saturday night, May 9, at the Donegal Annex. Parents are invited to attend.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the American Legion Post 185 will hold their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, May 8, 8 p.m. at the post home. Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Jean Spiess.

High School Students and Parents ...

You Are Invited to

COLLEGE CAMPUS DAY

AT

COUNTY FARMERS BANK

Main Office—23 East King Street, Lancaster

Friday, May 8—3 to 8 pm

Going to college? Nursing school? Thinking about it? Have a son or daughter approaching college age? Need questions answered about college life? Tuition? Courses? Extracurricular activities? Scholarships? Fraternity and sorority life? Financing? Expenses?

College Campus Day, Friday, May 8, at County Farmers Bank offers an excellent opportunity to learn about college and have your questions answered. These representatives of 11 Pennsylvania institutions of higher learning will be here May 8 between 3 and 8 p.m. to present their views of college life as well as to answer your questions. Come in for a pleasant, informative session on College Campus Day at County Farmers Bank. Catalogs will be available from these institutions as well as from Muhlenberg College, West Chester State College, Hood College, Ursinus College and Susquehanna University.

MEET THESE PEOPLE AND HAVE YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Dr. Robert V. Brown
Director of Admissions
Millersville State
College

Miss Linda Bell
Student
Lebanon Valley College

Lester C. Nagle
Student
Albright College

Miss Mary Rose
McWilliams
Director of Admissions
Cedar Crest College

Walter P. Kehoe, Jr.
Student
Gettysburg College

Miss Judith Coleman
Student
Wilson College

Harvey Huber
Director of Admissions
Kutztown
State College

Miss Eleanor Arnold
Asst. Instructor
Pediatrics
St. Joseph Training
School

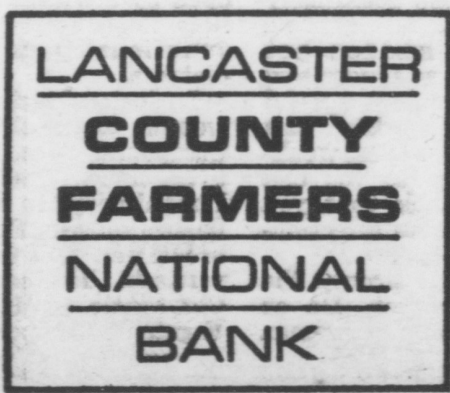

Michael Reese
Student
Franklin and Marshall
College

Miss Joy Hess
Instructor,
Medicine/Surgery
Lancaster General
Hospital

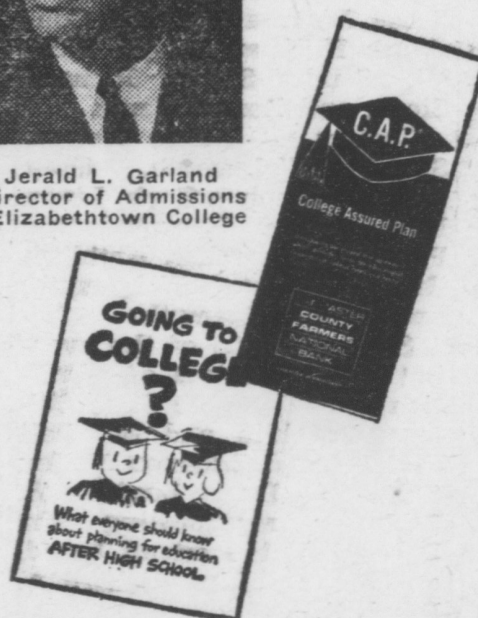

Jerald L. Garland
Director of Admissions
Elizabethtown College

COLLEGE CAMPUS DAY...A Good Time

To Discuss College Financing!

County Farmers Bank representatives will be on hand to discuss our College Assured Plan which is designed to help finance your education. Up to 8 years to repay. These booklets will be available.

QUARRYVILLE LANCASTER MOUNT JOY
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation . A Trustee for the Lancaster County Foundation.