Mayor To 'Fair'

The Fair's the thing! At New York there is the World's Fair and in Mount Joy there will be a "United States Fair." Explanation follows in two letters:

May 5, 1964

Dear Mayor Walter,

Miss Brubaker's fifth grade of Seiler Elementary school has decided to have a United States Fair. If New York can have a World's Fair, then we can have a United States Fair. We would be very honored to have you come to our States Fair and cut the ribbon to open it. Our theme is "Mount Joy, U. S. A." We would be very grateful if you would also make a short speech. It will take place at 1:00, May 21, 1964, at Seiler Elementary. We have also gotten many companies to cooperate by giving us information and samples.

Thank you,
Jill Hayman
Miss Brubaker's fifth grade of Seiler

Miss Jill Hayman
Fifth Grade,
Seiler Elementary School
Mount Joy, Pa.

Dear Miss Hayman
I will be pleased to be present at the opening of the United States Fair, to be held at Seiler Elementary School on May 21.

I will cut the ribbon and make a short speech. This Fair should prove to be a very exciting experience for the Fifth Grade and is perhaps the first of its kind in the area.

Thank you for the invita-

Rotary Entertains Boys and Girls

Sons and daughters of members of the Mount Joy Rotary club were entertained Tuesday noon at the clubmen's weekly luncheon meeting, held at Hostetters.

Nearly 30 youngsters of all ages attended.

A modified Hootenanny was the program, including talent of two different varieties. Ted Fellenbaum played an original piano solo, Carolyn Blantz sang "Over the Rainbow" and Janet Horner played "Sabre Dance."

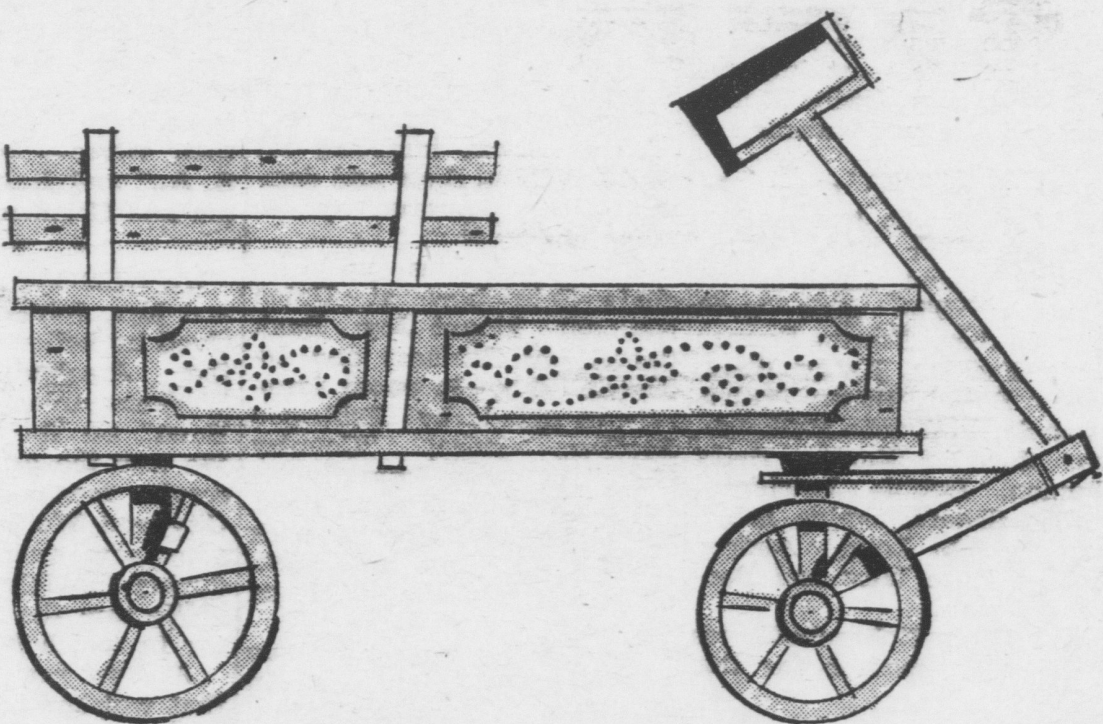

The Four Winds - including Tom Hayden, Tom Long, John Hart and Warren Hoffman - furnished the "folk music" portion, presenting comedy and music of the current popular variety. The group has had wide acceptance recently. They accompany themselves with guitar and base fiddle.

The program was arranged by Vice-President John Hart, who also served as master of ceremonies.

tion to attend.

Very truly yours,
Frank B. Walter,
Mayor, Borough of Mount Joy.
