fore in this column, the Library project is not dead. In fact, as of this week, there is considerable activity behind the scenes.
At this point it seems that the location of the new library might be ready for announcement within the next few days.
At a recent meeting of the Mount Joy Community Council, that group stepped forward to say that it will pay the first month's rent.
At the same time, the Auxiliary of the Friendship Fire company announced that it will give $250 toward the Library opening.

● BAKE SALE

The ladies' auxiliary to the Friendship fire company will have a food and bake sale on Saturday, May 23, at the fire hall, beginning at 11 a.m.

Florin Church To Hold Hymn Sing

An inspirational hymn-sing will be held in Glossbrenner E. U. B. church, on Sunday evening, May 24, at 7:15 o'clock. The director will be Jack Boyer of Lemoyne, Pa.
A large choir, consisting of the present senior choir and all former members, will sing several anthems and also lead the congregational singing of familiar hymns. Other various presentations will make this service an outstanding event to which the public is invited.

Neighborhood Scouts Meet

The Donegal Neighborhood of Girl Scouts had an outdoor meeting at the Cove on Tuesday, May 19. Each person brought her own meal to make over the fire. Members of the service team brought the same meal but each used a different type of cooking (one a pot, stick, aluminum foil and copper can). The Neighborhood will be holding the Day Camp June 15-19 at the Cove and on part of the Sportsmen's grounds.

Mrs. Warren Foley, acting Neighborhood chairman, introduced Mrs. Donald Straub, newly-elected chairman. Others elected were: Miss Linda Shireman, Marietta, secretary, and Mrs. Oliver Holmes and Mrs. Charles Shoemaker, alternate Council delegates.

The Neighborhood service team consists of Mrs. Eric Olson and Mrs. Jane Harner, troop consultants; Mrs. Jno. Frey and Mrs. Gerald Sheetz, troop organizers; and Mrs. Roy Longenecker and Mrs. Eric Olson, delegates.

Mrs. Foley announced to the group that as of May 1st she was appointed Witness Tree district chairman. This district is made up of five Neighborhoods — Elizabethtown, Columbia, Donegal, Hempfield and Manheim. With this position, Mrs. Foley is also a member of the Penn Laurel council executive board, replacing Mrs. Roscoe Thome, who held this position for nine years.

Mrs. Thome was honored at the April Council meeting with a thank you badge for her service. She is now serving on the Council nominating committee.
