On May 29, probably near Acme Market in Mount Joy, a Masonic ring with diamond in the center. Call Anthony Warta, 653-2952. 11-1c

Young children like to paint, whether it's with their fingers, elbows, or brush, says Mrs. Marguerite L. Duvall, extension specialist in child development and family life at the Penna. State University.

As a mother, you may not think nearly so much about the idea of painting as your children, but you can help them with one of their favorite activities.

To get an easel effect for painting, tape a piece of paper to the refrigerator, the basement wall, or the garage wall if the garage is near by suggests Mrs. Duvall. If your child paints standing up, make sure the paper is at the right height.
