Have you been needle-in-a-haystacking-it lately? Looking for the house of your dreams, that is. You know . . . the one that suits every member of the family. The one with the four bedrooms . . . large family room . . . modern kitchen . . . fireplace . . . two-and-a-half baths . . . on a large lot. Near schools . . . church . . . shopping. And, all within your very own slim-line budget? Takes some mighty serious and dedicated house-browsing. Keeps you poring over the daily "House For Sale" ads. Robs you of nights out. Kills the week ends. Worth it? Once you move in and begin to enjoy that new-home type living, we think you'll agree it is. Especially, if the County Farmers Bank has arranged your financing program, putting your mind at ease. Stop by when you are ready to talk about a mortgage loan. You'll be pleased with our speed and thoroughness. Warren Bentzel is the man to see at County Farmers Bank. Or any of our helpful lending officers. You'll like the personal interest they take in you . . . and that house of your dreams.
