

Hurt on Bicycle; Is Improving

Billy Schatz, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Schatz, R 2, is improving satisfactorily at the General hospital following a bicycle accident June 8.

He is out of the intensive care section with his fractured leg in traction and his arm in a cast. Head and facial injuries are improving satisfactorily.

Billy had ridden his bicycle to Seiler school on the last day of school as a special occasion. Returning home he lost control as he rode down the "waterworks hill" near the Sports Farm and crashed into a tree.

Class Observes 10th Anniversary

Twenty-three class members and 21 guests attended the tenth year reunion banquet of the class of 1954 of Mount Joy high school Saturday evening, June 20, at the Mount Joy restaurant.

During a business meeting following the dinner plans were made for the next reunion, in 1969, with the same committee serving as for this year's reunion: Patricia Schroll Miller, Dorothy Brooks Zellers, Sarah Garber Clinger, Mae Zink Greider, Constance Lane Nissley, Joanne Brown Risser, Patricia Frantz Leshner, James Hollinger, William Eby and Don Zerphey.

Awards were made to the following: Lois and Joe Shinn for traveling the farthest; Bill and Janet Eby, newest bride and groom; Dorothy Zeller, changed the least; Janet Rodriguez, changed the most; Dick and Josephine Will, newest baby; Owen Phillips, man with the loudest socks; Velma Hoffer, woman with the largest pocketbook. Linda and Charles Mayer received the centerpiece as a prize.

Following the dinner there was dancing at the Watering Trough Inn, and on Sunday a family picnic was held at Little Chiques park, with 23 class members, 16 guests and 41 children in attendance.

Three Injured

Three people injured in a two-car highway crash Friday morning, June 19, are reported in satisfactory condition this week.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Main St. and Longenecker road about 7:45 a.m., when a sports car being driven west by Larry Scott, Maytown collided with a station wagon occupied by Henry Bechtel, and Graybill Gorman, both of Marietta.

Bechtel, admitted at Saint Joseph's hospital suffered a fractured pelvis.

Scott, who was returning home from work at Armstrong Cork suffered facial lacerations requiring more than 50 stitches to close, and leg injuries. He returned to his home Sunday from the hospital.

AT CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. George Hardish, New Haven street attended the 41st Anniversary assembly of the Leonard H. Kinnard, Chapter #7, of the Telephone Pioneers of America held at the Hotel Shelburne, Atlantic City June 19-21st.

There are 14 councils in the Kinnard Chapter. Hardish completes his year as president of the Council of the Roses on June 30, and on July 1 will assume his new office, Member at Large on the Chapter Executive Board.

Mr. Hardish is employed by the Bell Telephone Co. of Penna. in Lancaster. Pioneers are employees who have 21 years or more of service.

Over 700 members, life members (retired employees) and their guests were present.

HERE FOR VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Klein and family and Clayton Hoffman of Rolla, North Dakota, are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. John Zeller, Pinkerton road, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hoffman, Delta St.

AT FESTIVAL

Among those attending the Wellsboro Laurel Festival last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brubaker of Rohrerstown and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gainor, Mount Joy. They stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Miller, at Ulysses, Pa., formerly of this community.
