PUREBRED GUERNSEY SALE
THURSDAY NIGHT, JULY 23, 7:30 P.M.
At the Ass'n. Sales Pavilion, 6 miles East of Lancaster, Pa. on Route #30.
55 HEAD, 2 Bulls, Balance Cows and Bred Heifers, 25 fresh or due in June or July, balance in August
The extremely dry weather in the southeastern part of the state has caused a drop in milk production generally, which in turn should mean an increased Class I percentage in your milk check. The smart operator is ready to take advantage of this situation and at the same time conserves his valuable feed by giving it to cows which will immediately pay dividends through their production.
This is a quality sale with a large number of heavy producers and heifers out of high record dams. Come early and look them over, then be ready to buy.
