The wedding of Miss Barbara Ann Hackman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Albert Hackman, 271 Stanley Ave., Landisville, to Robert Lawrence Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lawrence Franklin, of 130 Marlboro St., Wollaston, Mass., was solemnized in Zion Lutheran Church, Landisville, with the Rev. G. Martin Ruoss officiating, on Saturday at 3 p.m.

Mr. Hackman gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Susan R. Hackman, Landisville, was maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were the Misses Pamela and Deborah Franklin, sisters of the bridegroom, Wollaston, Mass.; Joan K. Ruth, of New Cumberland, and Elizabeth A. Avery, New Castle, Del.

The reception was held at the Hamilton Club.

The bride graduated from Hempfield high school and Penna. State University, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration last month. She will be employed by the Singer Co. in New York, beginning Aug. 17.

The bridegroom is employed by the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. He graduated from Boston University Club of New York. He served in the Regular Army at the U.S. with rank of first lieutenant.

The couple will reside at 230 East 58th St., New York City, after spending the next month at Cape Cod, Mass.

AT PARRIS ISLAND

Two Mount Joy young men are currently at Parris Island, S. C.

They are: Richard Lee Bringman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee Bringman Sr. of 809 West Main Street, who is undergoing recruit training.

After 12 weeks of recruit training, he will be assigned to the Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Geiger, N. C., to study advanced infantry tactics for four weeks. After completion of ITR he will receive a 20-day leave before assignment to a formal school or one of the many Marine Corps bases throughout the world.

Also at Parri Island is Alvin N. Collins Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin N. Collins Sr., 347 West Donegal St.

Both Bringman and Collins were members of the Marine Corps Reserves in Columbia, before reenlisting into the regular Marine Corps on July 1. They were enlisted at the Marine Corps Recruiting Substation at the post office in Lancaster.

MATEER — APPLEY

Miss Leda Jeanette Appley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy B. Appley, 21 E. Market St., Marietta, was married to Randolph Mateer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mateer, of Birchland Ave., Mount Joy, in First Methodist Church, Marietta, with the Rev. Alonzo Casselbery officiating, on Saturday, July 18, at 10 a.m.

Miss Helen Appley, Marietta, was maid of honor for her sister. Donald Shive, York Springs, served as best man. Robert Hopple and Ronald Pennell, both of Mount Joy, were ushers. Richard McKain was organist and Mrs. Armor McKain III, soloist.

The couple left on a wedding trip following the reception in the church social hall. They will reside at 21 E. Market St., Marietta.

The bride is a student at Millersville State College and will begin student teaching in Ephrata high school in September.

The bridegroom, graduate of Penna. State University this year will begin graduate work toward a Ph.D. in chemistry at Florida State U., Tallahassee, in September.

The couple graduated from Donegal high school; the bridegroom in 1960 and the bride in 1961.

Miss Barbara Brown entertained at a pre-nuptial shower for the bride.

WED 50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus W. Peifer, 25 Mount Joy Street, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Monday, July 20.

The couple was honored at a dropin party in their home Sunday by about 40 family members.

They were married by Alderman A. P. Newell Jr. on July 20, 1914. Both are natives of the county. They are members of the E. U. B. Church, Mount Joy. Peifer is a retired self-employed house painter.

Peifer and his wife, the former Pauline Krall, have six children: Grant J., Lancaster, John, Parkesburg; Mrs. June Hauser, Middletown; Charles and Cyrus Jr., both of Mount Joy; and Robert, at home. They also have 12 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

ON BUS TOUR

Miss Esther Walters and Misses Anne Mae and Ruth Eby of Mount Joy, and Miss Alice Marie Nissley of Salunga have returned from a 10-day bus trip to the Wisconsin Dells and Mackinac Island. They visited both the Upper and Lower Dells, spent three days on Mackinac Island, enjoying its unique, leisurely pace, and had stops in Detroit, lengthy boat trips across the lakes, and pleasant and memorable experiences.

VISITING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Weaver of Sarasota, Fla., former residents of this community, are spending a few months at a cottage on the Landisville Camp Meeting Grounds.
