Of This 'n That

used, no doubt, very soon!
As we sat in our pew at the Mount Joy Presbyterian church a few Sundays ago, we observed that taking part in the music of the church was very much "a family affair."

Mrs. Barbara Fellenbaum, long a faithful member of the choir, now has her daughter and son in law, Sally and Jim Roberts, and a grandson, Ted Fellenbaum, singing alongside her!

William Bailey is church organist . . . his wife sings in the choir. Si Phillips, a veteran member of the choir, must be proud to have his young schoolteacher daughter, Patty, adding her talent to the group this winter. Mrs. Harold Billow sings in the choir, her daughter, Kathy, played the organ prelude. And, on some occasions, though not on that particular Sunday, Warren Foley, a faithful "regular," is joined by his college daughter, Lora Lee, or another daughter, Ann.

We are sure a similar tale could be told of other church choirs in Mount Joy, if we but knew about them in as much detail!
