

Glue the prints with rubber cement to the map; then, glue the maps to cardboard cut to fit the frame.

If one photograph is especially good, you might want to consider having it enlarged and frame it alone. Or, if you have enough wall space, you can frame additional snapshots, arranged in the order of the places you visited.

For Holiday Baking Fun

Just in time for your holiday baking, here's an assortment of appealing cookie recipes. These goodies will give a warm welcome to friends who drop in during this hospitable season, and they'll keep your family well-supplied with snacks. For a gala occasion, when you have a party or open house, display your cookies on a handsome tray or platter and serve with creamy eggnog.

Your guests will rave over Flaky Meringue Cookies, so light they melt in your mouth. Each airy crescent is rolled around a surprise center, a crunchy nut-meringue filling.

FLAKY MERINGUE COOKIES

1½ cups sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup (1 stick) butter
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
5 teaspoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
Nut Meringue Filling*
Confectioners sugar

Sift together flour and salt; cut in butter until it is the size of small peas. Add egg yolks, lemon juice and rind; stir with a fork until well blended. Chill dough for ease in handling (about 2 hours). Shape into balls 1-inch in diameter. On lightly floured board flatten to form 2½-in. circles using the bottom of a glass or a rolling pin. Spread 1 teaspoon Nut Meringue Filling in the center of each; roll as for jelly roll being sure to seal ends and edges well. Place on baking sheet in the shape of a crescent. Bake 15 minutes or until lightly browned in a 375 degree oven; remove to a wire rack to cool. While warm sprinkle with confectioners sugar. Makes about 4½ doz. cookies.

*NUT MERINGUE FILLING

2 egg whites
½ cup sugar
¾ cup finely chopped nuts
Beat egg whites until soft peaks form. Continue to beat while gradually adding sugar; beat until very stiff and glossy. Fold in chopped nuts.

CRISP HONEY DROPS

¾ cup (1½ sticks) butter
1 cup sugar
1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
¼ cup honey
2¼ cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon mace
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg white, slightly beaten
Shredded coconut

Cream together butter and sugar until light and fluffy; beat in egg yolk and orange rind. Blend in honey. Sift together flour, baking powder, mace and salt; add gradually to creamed mixture. Drop by teaspoon onto baking sheet about 2 inches apart; flatten with fork dipped in flour. Brush with egg white; sprinkle with red or green coconut. Bake 10 - 14 minutes in a 350 degree oven; remove to wire rack to cool. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.

NOTE: To color coconut, sprinkle a few drops of red or green food coloring over coconut and toss with fork until evenly colored.
