

Truck Overtakes On Marietta Rd.

A Farm Bureau truck overturned in a field along the Marietta Pike, about a quarter mile south of Mount Joy, spilling six tons of feed, at 7:55 a.m. Monday, Jan. 12.

The driver, Harry S. Dietz, fifty-three, Hellam R1, received only a slight facial injury. He was on his way from Manheim to York county.

Dietz told state police he was stopping for a line of traffic, which had halted due to another accident. Police received no report of the other accident. The truck went into a ditch and overturned.
