Report of Civic Association Committee:

The Executive Committee meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haines Thursday evening, Jan. 21. It was attended by the newly elected officers, directors, committee chairmen and retiring officers.

A motion was made to pay $60 to the American Legion for the use of the building for Civic Association activities and meetings during '64.

Action was taken to recommend that the association sponsor the Community playground activities for the summer of 1965.

After a period of discussion a motion was made that an annual budget be prepared which will reflect the amount of money that must be raised annually to meet the Association's commitments. The following were appointed on this committee: Gerald Lindemuth, chrm.; Robert Hiestand and Ivan Hess.

A report was given by Norman. Houseal and Wilson Penwell on the conversion of the tennis courts to an ice skating rink. Information secured through the Township Supervisors from the Construction Co. gave the assurance that this conversion is possible without damaging the courts. Necessary changes will be made so that the rink can be used from year to year.

Hospitality chrm., Grace Henderson reported cards were sent to shut-ins and persons hospitalized. Contacts by this committee are also made with new residents.

A report from the chairman of the Shade Tree committee indicates that the Arbor Day Poster Contest in the elementary school will again be sponsored. Discussion was held that the committee plan to encourage the planting of shade trees throughout the town.

A membership drive will be conducted and an effort made to solicit the cooperation of the community in the Association projects. As a membership committee the following were appointed: Robert Hiestand, chrm.; Hazel Crankshaw, Helen Hollenbaugh, Ruth Newcomer and Norman Houseal.

The quarterly meeting will be held Thursday, Feb. 25.

Overheard at a society luncheon: "I have a simply wonderful new diet doctor. He lets you eat anything you want, as long as you pay your bill!"
