Humor Adds To Capades

Energetic humor is once again featured in the silver anniversary edition of Ice Capades which returns to Hershey Sports Arena Feb. 17 to 27 with an entirely new concept in ice show format.

One of the strongest ice comics ever produced by Ice Capades is Hans Leiter whose fast-paced back bends, stumbling twists, leaping splits, reckless falls and subtle pantomime require a maximum of speed, agility and split-second timing. Leiter enacts the "Senorita from Seville" and is starred in "By the Sea" in the current edition.

One of the most astonishing specialty acts of all time is the badminton-on-ice game presented by eleven-times world's badminton champion, Hugh Forgie, and his agile partner, Shirley Marie. The pair make the shuttlecock do amazing things as they speed around the ice.

"The Billboard Painters" is the name given the act of ace comedians Labrecque and Bussey. Labrecque found a home with Ice Capades after a career of professional boxing and a whirl at professional hockey. Bussey, also a former hockey player, became a mainstay in the act after substituting for John's former partner. The duo is also featured as "Hollywood Hillbillies".

Contributing to the humorous side of Ice Capades is Spanky, the skating Chimp and his trainer-partner, Dave Pitts, and William Rider, cast as an hilarious French chef in "At the County Fair."

Other stars in the production are Otto and Maria Jelinek, world pair champions; Roymayne and Steele, famous adagio pair; Aja Zanova, twice world's champion from Czechoslovakia; Lynn Finnegan, New York beauty; Sashi Kuchiki, Japanese champion; Brigitte, Viennese champion; Peter Voss; Mitsuko Funakoshi; and Tommy Litz, spectacular young skater from Hershey who won the world's free style skating title at Dortmund, Germany, earlier this year.
