Presbyterian
- Home News -
This last week brought both sadness and joy to our Home Circle. Mrs. Cora Mayberry passed away March 18 with the funeral service at Nissley funeral home, and interment at Schuylkill Haven. The officiating ministers were: The Rev. Douglas Dunderdale of Phoenixville, and Rev. Harry Freebairn, Mount Joy.

Presbyterian - Home News -

For many days we enjoyed the celebration of Miss Laura Deremer's 92nd birthday, March 17. The preceding Sunday four of her Lancaster friends, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Howett and their sons Neil and Scott, were dinner guests. Five visitors came the following day, two of whom were dinner guests, Mrs. Ellis Mitchell, Unionville, and Mrs. Leebach Logan, Kennett Square. Tuesday evening Miss Deremer was the guest of Mrs. W. Scott Heisey, Rheems, and on Wednesday evening the Rev. Harry Freebairn, was the special guest for supper. Miss Deremer continues to lead an active life, even going to Harrisburg with Miss Blanche M. Speer on a shopping trip.
A group of about 25, including the deacons, their wives and children, from the Camp Hill Pa. Allendale Presbyterian Church, visited and toured our Home Sunday afternoon.
Other visitors:
Mrs. Ellery Califf and Mrs. Fred Wielinga of the Lancaster Highland Presbyterian Church, visited the

Huge Antique Show at Capital

The Eastern National Antiques Fair will be held at the Farm Show Building, in Harrisburg April 7 through 10.
Exhibitors from a 14 state area will have more than 100,000 antiques on display and for sale at this show.
John Altland stated that people attending this show can see more antique dealers and more antiques in a few hours at this show than would be possible through a year's travel. He also stated that at this year's fair, coin dealers will have their largest display. Due to the great shortage of coins the demand has reached its greatest peak since 1907.
Aside from being one of the most beautiful antique shows staged anywhere in the country, there will be elaborate displays of glass, china, iron, brass, pewter & jewelry. Rare paintings, prints and books will also play a big part in this great exhibition.
The show, held in Harrisburg in the heart of the antique country, is expected to draw attendance from hundreds of miles around. The grand opening will be held Wednesday, April 7th, at 1 p.m., when the ribbon will be officially cut by an outstanding personality.
In England, a distinguished woman economist claims to hear radio news bulletins before they are broadcast.
Last year, for instance, she reports hearing a news item on Charles de Gaulle 2 days beforehand.
Further possibilities stagger the mind. Imagine "tuning in" on tomorrows stock market news today!
