er, and Mrs. F. McDonald, of Deremer.

walter, Lancaster, for Mrs.
Evelyn Hershey.

Leola, and Mrs. Elsie Krick,

Myers.

Miss Helen Hertzler and Mrs. Daisy Eckman, Coatesville, friends of Mrs. Evelyn Hershey, were our guests for supper on Saturday evening.

Under the Wycliffe Bible Translators, Miss Hertzler taught in a school for missionaries' children for one year, 1963 to 1964 in Quito, Ecuador. In the evening she showed us beautiful colored pictures of Quito, 10,000 feet high in the Andes Mountains the surrounding country, and two tribes of Indians, the Colorados and the Aucas who live in the jungles. It may be recalled that it was in January 1956 that five men, Wycliffe missionaries, were killed by four men of the Auca Tribe. Today those four, plus many more, are Christians with a real testimony, and the Gospel of Mark has been given to them in their own language which never before had been reduced to writing. They call the Bible "God's Carving." Miss Hertzler had the joy of meeting the Auca Christians and we had the joy of seeing their bright, happy faces in the pictures.

Mrs. Mabel Myers spent several days with her niece, Mrs. Joseph Martin and family in Lancaster.
