

LANDISVILLE - SALUNGA NEWS

Mrs. William K. Risser

The East Hempfield Democratic committee held a coffee hour on April 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the Landisville Fire Hall.

All Democratic women in the Township were invited. Mrs. Ruth Grigg Horting, of Lancaster, spoke.

Democrat leaders and candidates on the township ticket attended.

Levi H. Brubaker, of 2001 Marietta Pike, was named chairman of the East Hempfield Township newly organized zoning board of adjustment, which met recently. The board also named Charles M. Eby, township zoning officer, as board secretary. The board approved five requests for zoning exceptions at the initial series of hearings. There were no objections at the initial series of hearings. There were no objections to any of the requests.

Five members of the Hempfield high school Key Club attended the state-wide Key Club convention at the Hilton Hotel, Pittsburgh on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 23-24-25.

The convention included workshops and discussions, climaxed by a dance on Saturday evening; and devotions on Sunday.

The boys who attended from Hempfield were as follows.

Robert Shank, Robert Sooper, Paul Hollinger, MacDonald Starks and Donald Risser. Mrs. John Wolfe, teacher, was chaperone.

The Hempfield high school Alumni Association Committee completed plans for an expanded effort to obtain contributions for its Scholarship Fund during a special meeting recently at the high school.

"We hope to contribute $4,000 in scholarships to the Hempfield graduates this spring, so we've got to keep the fund growing, said Jas. Snavelly, committee chairman.

Last year nine graduates were awarded $3,800 in scholarship. A total of 54 have received funds since the scholarship was organized in 1952.

Hempfield Union High School held its annual honors banquet on Monday, April 26 at 6:30 p.m. in the junior high cafeteria. Donald Bisinger, junior high principal, was master of ceremonies.

Music was provided by a former student, Miss Arlene Hartenstine. A total of 169 students attended, along with members of the school board administration and faculty.

Deana Horst, a senior at Hempfield High School, David Haag, a junior at Hempfield, and Miles Harriger, a sophomore, are planning to spend the summer in France.

Deana and David have applied to the American Pre-College Program in Paris, sponsored by Americans in the Latin Quarter. In addition to six different class levels in the French language the program offers these courses: Art in France, French civilization, French History, French Literature, and music and dance.

Prior to the start of the session, the program will conduct an 11-day tour of Belgium, Holland, Switzerland and Germany.

Harriger will be staying at the Cie Universities in Riems. The Foreign Language League Program will begin on June 28 and will last until August 10.

The Hempfield Sertoma club met Wednesday evening, April 21 at 6:30 p.m. at the Mount Joy American Legion Post Home.

The Girl Scout Troop, which the Club sponsors were the guests of the evening.

A meeting for the purpose of forming a Woman's club for the Hempfield area was held recently at the home of Mrs. John Keene, Hermosa Avenue.

Those attending the initial meeting were Mrs. Robert Harper, Mrs. Larry Hiestand, Mrs. J. Freeland Chryst, Mrs. Lee Stauffer, Mrs. Wm. Bachman, Mrs. Florence Goodman, Mrs. Fred Schroeder, and Mrs. John Kuehne. According to a spokesman for the group it was felt there was a sufficient need and interest for such an organization in the area. An open meeting for the public is scheduled for May at a date to be announced.

Meetings are tentatively scheduled to be held in the meeting room of the Indian Springs Golf Club.
