and other recreational pursuits.

Over 5,000 boats cruise the lake at the peak of the season. During the summer, sailboat races are generally scheduled for each Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday by the Lake Wallenpaupack Yacht Club. Motorboat races are also held

Camping

To accommodate the greatest number of people and at the same time provide clean, healthful and safe camping, picnicking and boat launching areas, PP&L has made extensive improvements of its four Lake Wallenpaupack campsites: Ledge Dale, Ironwood Point, Wilsonville and Caffrey. Plots are laid out for each camping party with a fireplace and picnic table for each plot. Access roads, boat launching facilities, additional parking facilities and new all-electric laundry and shower facilities have been provided.

An unprecedented number of campers are using the facilities. Advance reservations for campsites at all parks for the month of August exceeds all previous years.

Last year, vacationers enjoyed a banner season at the lake with an actual count of 16,342 persons using the camping facilities, and increased numbers are expected this summer.

KRAYBILL REUNION

The seventeenth reunion of the descendants of Peter N. and Fannie S. Kraybill will be held at Elizabethtown Community park on Saturday, August 14.

Local Man At Church Conclave

More than 500 men and women met at the American Baptist Assembly, Great Lake, Wisconsin, July 24-30 in the Ecumenical Evangelism Conference.

Among the conferees is Rev. William W. Longenecker of the Florin Church, on Bruce Ave., Mount Joy.

The theme of the Conference stressed "Scenes of Witness in a Changing Age." This reinterpretation of the Gospel, which is for every age — in fact ageless — turns the spotlight on the present.

"You're young only once. After that, you need some other excuse."

An Adequate Breakfast

Chilled orange juice, ready-to-eat cereal, milk, and these warm, tender muffins form a tempting, adequate breakfast.

Oat Flake Muffins have somewhat chewy texture and nice grain flavor. Bittersweet marmalade baked in the centers contributes a surprise element that's altogether delightful. They are the kind of appetite-stirring bread to prepare on a mid-summer morning when it seems just too hot to eat. Good accompaniment are fruit, breakfast cereal, and milk. This foursome assures a light, modern basic breakfast that will provide quick and lasting energy. The whole family will enjoy it, including the cook, for the muffins go together so quickly.

Marmalade Oat Flake Muffins

1 1/2 cups sifted flour	3/4 cup milk
1/4 cup sugar	1/4 cup melted shortening
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder	1 cup oat flakes
1 teaspoon salt	1/4 cup marmalade or preserves
1 egg, beaten

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, and salt. Combine egg, milk, and shortening. Add to dry ingredients, blend just until dry particles are moistened. Fold in oat flakes. Fill greased muffin pans (2 1/2 x 1 1/4-inch) 1/2 full. Spoon a teaspoonful of marmalade or preserves onto each and top with remaining batter, filling pans about 3/4 full. Bake in hot oven (400°F) until lightly browned, 20 to 25 minutes. Yield: 12 muffins.
