the job for years. These correspondents definitely help the "wheels to go around"!

We heard an interesting little story the other day which we want to share with you.

One of the young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sheetz, west Donegal street, wanted something on the top shelf of the kitchen cabinets. So, disdaining a step-stool or other aid, up he went to get it, using the shelves themselves as his "ladder."

As he reached for the coveted object, the shelves came loose from the wall, tumbling him (and the shelves' contents) to the floor!

The little boy was unhurt, fortunately, but many dishes in the cabinet were broken. An heirloom china teapot, however, belonging to one side of the family, and an antique cup and saucer inherited from the other side, were both miraculously intact, without a chip or a crack!

Incidentally, prices of antiques are continuing to soar! At a public sale near Ephrata, which we attended Saturday afternoon, a green china washbowl and pitcher set with six pieces brought a fabulous price of $94! (It was truly beautiful, one of the prettiest we've ever seen, but was it THAT beautiful?)

A rough, weathered wood box with many scars, brought more than $50, as also did a pretty blue china water pitcher!

When will the upward spiral of these fantastic prices level off? Nobody knows.

Your Executor?

Even if your brother-in-law knows accounting, is an experienced bill collector, enjoys reading the Wall Street Journal, can analyze investments, understands taxes, and almost never takes a vacation — and assuming, of course, he outlives you — it would be pure folly to name him your Executor.

Why?

Because County Farmers Bank can offer you a whole group of specialists — a Trust Team — whose job it is to keep up on ways to cut down financial loss and risk for beneficiaries. Full time. All year round.

Call one of the Estate Planning Officers (Messrs. Beattie, Maurer, or Steele) and let him explain how County Farmers Bank as your Executor — working closely with your attorney — can be the best team you've ever picked.
