Rotarians Hear About Humor

"Humor and Its Place In the Examined Life" was the subject of the principal speaker Tuesday noon at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Mount Joy Rotary club, held at Hostetters.

Analyzing the things which make people laugh, Professor John Ellsworth Winter of Millersville college, philosophy department, said that humor is the human-ness of humanity.

Humor, he concluded, is a "change of pace" which gives meaning to life. It is not, he said, after discussing ancient and modern philosopher's viewpoints on humor, anything which is low, degrading harmful, or ugly.

Americans, he pointed out, like humor which has a "punch" tagged at the tail end of a story or, a situation.

The program was arranged and the speaker introduced by Jay Risser, first vice-president.

NOW! A WHOLE NEW SERIES OF ULTRA-LUXURIOUS CHEVROLETS

'66 CAPRICE

BY CHEVROLET

Caprice Custom Coupe—with exclusive formal roof line that comes on no other Chevrolet.

Caprice Custom Sedan—with superb new Body by Fisher elegance inside and out.

Caprice Custom Wagon—with fine new look of hardwood paneling on sides and tailgate.

Everything it takes to create a distinguished luxury car has gone into these new Caprices.

Beneath the formal styling elegance that sets the Custom Coupe apart, for instance, you'll find thick wall-to-wall carpeting, comfort-contoured seats and the look of hand-rubbed walnut on the instrument panel, glove compartment and inside door panels. You can order a finely instrumented console, together with new Strato-bucket front seats.

In the Custom Sedan, a new Strato-back front seat is available with bucket-type contours separated by a fold-down armrest. And in the equally opulent Custom Wagons, offered in 2- or 3-seat models, you can even order carpeting for the cargo area.

Each model rides super Jet-smooth. And for incomparably smooth power, you can specify Chevrolet's advanced Turbo-Jet V8 in either a 396- or 427-cubic-inch version.

The price of it all? Somewhat more than you're used to paying for a Chevrolet. But less, as your dealer will happily confirm—than the select class of fine cars these new Caprices invite comparison with in every detail.
