Firemen Answer Two Alarms

Friendship Fire company answered a call Tuesday morning for assistance at Marietta when the home of Eli Frick, West Front street, was discovered in flames.
Flames broke out on the second floor of the home. There was considerable smoke and water damage but residents in the other half of the house suffered only minimal damage.
The Fricks, a family of 11, have been obliged to live with relatives until new quarters can be located.
Firemen from Marietta, Maytown, Silver Spring and Rheems also responded to the alarm.
Fire of undetermined origin damaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gelmacher, 211 West Main St., Monday morning, Nov. 29, shortly after 8 o'clock.
The blaze was in the kitchen but apparently unrelated to cooking.
