

Friendship Fire Company Elects

James Schneider, 39 Mount Joy street, has been named president of Mount Joy's Friendship Fire company.

He was elected at the company's annual organization meeting, held last week at the fire hall.

Other officers elected are: John L. Schroll, first vice president; Steve Supperl, 2nd vice-president; Elwood Young recording secretary, and Raymond Knorr, financial secretary-treasurer.

John Myers was named chief. Frank Good Jr., was elected assistant chief, and Harvey Stoner, chief engineer

Line Parking Lot At PRR Station

A parking lot improvement in Mount Joy which will provide facilities for added motorists has virtually been completed east of the Pennsylvania depot on Henry street.

The lot was newly paved last week and this week will be lined to establish definite parking spaces.

With new lines the lot will accommodate more than 25 autos in two lines — one along Henry street and the other immediately south along the bank of the railroad cut.

Among Those Feted at Olmsted

On Nov. 26, Miss Betty Jane Charles, Pinkerton Rd., was one of the guests at the Retirement Ceremonies conducted at the Headquarters Building, Olmsted AFB, in Middletown. She was presented a Certificate of Service "in recognition of 22 years of faithful and devoted Federal Service on the occasion of retirement". The Certificate was presented by Major General Frederic H. Miller, USAF, Commander, Middletown Air Material Area.

She was employed as a Freight Classification Assistant in the Directorate, Supply and Transportation Division.

Church To Hold Candle Service

Hundreds of candles will light the Glossbrenner E.U.B. Church of Mount Joy on Christmas eve.

The traditional service will begin at 11 p. m. and will conclude with the arrival of Christmas Day. Each worshiper will be given a candle to be lit at the appropriate time in the service to signify his part in the distribution of the light which Christ brought into the world and which the darkness cannot extinguish.

The Christmas story will be retold in music and scripture with a brief meditation also being presented by the pastor, Rev. Charles Wolfe, who invites the public to attend this service.
