ADDIE RICH PARKER

Mrs. Addie Rich Parker, a Red Cross nurse veteran of World War I and a retired school nurse, died suddenly at 11:45 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 15, at her home, 147 West Market St., Marietta.

Death resulted from a coronary occlusion. She had been under the care of a physician for three months. She was seventy-three.

Mrs. Parker served as a member of the Nursing Corp, American Red Cross, during World War I at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. prior to the time nurses were given commissioned status.

In 1941 she was appointed school nurse for the Marietta and Maytown public schools and served the area for 18 years, until her retirement in June, 1959.

During her school nurse tenure, Mrs. Parker never wore a uniform. It was her conviction that children especially connected the uniform with unpleasant experiences and she wanted to meet her young patients without that handicap.

Prior to entering the Red Cross Nursing Corps she was a supervisor at her alma mater, the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, where she was graduated in 1917. After her tour with the Red Cross, she served as a private duty nurse until 1935.

Born in Marietta, she was a daughter of the late Henry Spangler Rich and Annie Mumma Rich. She graduated from Marietta high school attended Perkiomen Seminary, and entered nurses' training in 1914.

A member of the First Methodist Church of Marietta, Mrs. Parker served as a member of the Board of

Tribe Drops 5, 6th In Row

Donegal high's basketball who had 20 and 15 respect-Indians absorbed a pair of ively. bitter beatings this week and stretched their losing string to six in a row.

Friday night, at Hempfield the Black Knights took the Tribe's measure, 77 to 41. Tuesday night, at Conestoga Valley, the defending and unbeaten county champs handed out a 74 - 36 defeat.

Likewise, the J.V.'s dropped a pair, Hempfield won, 63-27, and C.V. took a narrow 35 to 30 victory.

George Berryhill's 14 against Hempfield was best for the Tribe but no match for a pair of Bobcats — Bob Cooper's 24, Bob Rivard's 23.

The same Indian hit for 11 at Conestoga Valley but was snowed under by "Chuck" Wolf and Doug Hartanft,

Farm Women 8 Hold Meeting

Rotarians Hear Of Stock Market

How the stock market works was the theme of the Tuesday noon program at the weekly Rotary club meeting, held at Hostetters.

Howard Salves of Lancaster, an associate of Hornblowers & Weeks - Hemphill Noyes, was the speaker. He showed a movie entitled "What Makes us Tick," and then talked about the stock market and answered questions.

The meeting was in charge of Rotary vice-president, Jay Risser.

Salves said that it is his advice to individuals to first save for themselves a sufficient cash reserve, provide adequate insurance and then investigate investments in common stocks.

ATTENTION!

ALL PAYING NEWSPAPER CUSTOMERS

New Year's Day at 8:30 a.m. thirty-two (32) papers were stolen at our store. Holidays are exceptionally bad. At one cent per paper profit for the Lancaster paper, it is hardly a paying proposition. I've tried to warn everyone but a few people still insist on cheating and stealing.

To the honest people, please don't be offended if you see me checking the coin tumblers after you leave. A person who has nothing to hide has nothing to fear. Furthermore, if I remove your money, I know exactly what the next person puts in. Several people have threatened to do me bodily harm when exposed to cheating and taking papers, including the mother of a mature woman who called me on the phone recently and asked if I was the person that watches people stealing papers. When I replied in the affirmative, she stated that I apprehended her daughter and that the next time she came to Mount Joy she was going to punch me right in the nose. If you see me with my nose all bandaged up, you'll know the reason why.

Please pay for your papers. I don't like bruises.
