

The Mount Joy BULLETIN

MOUNT JOY, PENNA.
Published Weekly on Wednesdays
Except Fourth of July Week and Christmas Week
(50 Issues Per Year)
11 EAST MAIN STREET, MOUNT JOY, PENNA., 17552
In the heart of fabulous Lancaster County.

Richard A. Rainbolt
Editor
and Publisher

Subscription Rate - $2.50 per year by mail.
Advertising Rates upon request.
Entered as the post office at Mount Joy, Penna., as second class mail under the Act of March 3, 1879.

LANDISVILLE - SALUNGA NEWS

The East Hempfield Guild of the Lancaster Osteopathic Guild met recently at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Amos Eisenberger.

The Landisville Church of God will conduct informal discussions on the topic 'The Church Views Her Mission in the World Today' every night from March 20 to 25.

The meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the church and will be led by Dr. K. E. Bildosser, superintendent of the Eastern Penna. Eldership Churches of God.

The Hempfield Jaycee-ettes have elected new officers. They are: Mrs. Donald Miller, president; Mrs. Kenneth Malehorn, vice president; Mrs. Roy Weitzel, secretary; Mrs. Lester Adams, treasurer; Mrs. Warren Stone, director. Plans were made for a dessert card party to be held on Mar. 24.

Mrs. John Ward, Juliette Low chairman for the Hempfield Girl Scout Neighborhood, accepted contributions from 39 troops at a meeting held recently at Hempfield Junior high school.

Neighborhood chairman Mrs. Burnell Nolt, presented service pins to the following women: Mrs. Robert Sloat, Mrs. Robert Lee, Mrs. Kathryn Milan, Mrs. George Robertson, Mrs. Janet Sherick, Mrs. June Goeke, Mrs. Chas. Sanders, Mrs. Barbara Mallison, Mrs. Cynthia Reynolds, five year pins; Mrs. Lewis Hosfeld, Mrs. Harry Wade, ten year pins; Mrs. William Dussinger, fifteen year pin. Mrs. Theodore Obniski and Mrs. Robert Sloat were elected as delegates to the Penn Laurel Council.

Mrs. Betty Jean Cannon, director of Field Service, Penn Laurel Council, explained the sustaining membership program to the leaders. The next neighborhood meeting will be a covered dish dinner at the Farmdale School on May 9 at 6:30 p.m.

The Rev. Russell Beahm, pastor of the Salunga Church of the Brethren, spoke on 'The Meaning of the Cross' at the community Lenten Service held in the Salunga Church on Wednesday, Mar. 16 at 7:30 p.m.

Parents of children entering kindergarten next fall in the Hempfield Union School District registered their children for the term on Wednesday, March 16.

The enrollment activities were conducted at the Landisville, East Petersburg, Rohrerstown, Mountville, and Farmdale elementary schools. Any child who will be five years old prior to Feb. 1, '67 is eligible for the kindergarten training.

Parents whose last names begin with A through K were asked to register in the 8:30 to 11 a.m. session and those names beginning with L thru Z from one to three p.m. Registration for the children who have not attended kindergarten was held at the same time.

Dr. George Evans, a resident psychiatrist with the Mental Health Institute in Philadelphia, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Hempfield Woman's club held recently at the Landisville Fire Hall. His topic was 'The Behavior of Adolescents' Mrs. David Silberstein, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

The meeting was a 'Husbands' Night program.'

The Junior Class of Hempfield high school presented 'Pillow Talk', Friday and Saturday nights, Mar. 18, 19 in Hackman Auditorium at 8 p.m. Leading roles were portrayed by Susan Harry and Rick Hanna. Clyde Hartenstein and Debbie Fultineer were student directors. Co-directors of the play are Miss Judy Kirchoff and Mrs. Evelyn Cramer.

The Hempfield Sertoma club met Wednesday evening March 16 at 6:30 o'clock at the Mount Joy American Legion Post Home. Burnell Hostetter, president of the Landisville Jaycees, was guest speaker.

Dale Bushong was elected president of the Hempfield 4-H club at a recent reorganization meeting. Other officers elected were Robert Greider, vice president; Ann Myers, secretary; Larry Antes treasurer; Emma Conley, song leader; Brenda Heisey, reporter; and Sue Crawford and Robert Dunbar, game leaders.

Mrs. Glenn Hertzler, 2680 Lititz pike, will receive orders for the hoagies to be sold by the Youth Fellowship of Hempfield E. U. B. church on Saturday, Mar. 26.

Leisure Club Holds Meeting

Slides taken in the Holy Land and in Hawaii were shown on Monday, March 14 as the Mount Joy Leisure Club held its monthly meeting in Friendship Fire Hall. The pictures were presented by Charles Sheldon of Elizabethtown, a member of the club.

Hostesses for the serving of refreshments were Mrs. Sheldon, Mrs. J. E. P. Hart and Mrs. George Groff.

As part of the program each member was asked to tell about an embarrassing situation which had happened to them.

The Leisure club still is accepting memberships from among retired and semi-retired people of the area. Meetings are held the second Monday of the month and everyone interested is invited to participate.

The next meeting will be on Monday, April 11.

Neighborhood Scouts

The Donegal Neighborhood of the Penn Laurel Girl Scout Council met in the St. Mark's E. U. B. church in Mount Joy, March 21 at 7:00 O'clock.

Approximately 150 Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes, and Senior Girl Scouts were present to hear Miss Sue Adams from York. Sue showed slides on her trip to the Israel National boy and girl scout Jamboree last August.

Mrs. William Dommel, the Juliet Low chairman for the Donegal Neighborhood spoke on the Juliet Low World Friendship Fund and a Girl from each troop presented a check to the Council for the Juliet Low Fund.

The business meeting started at 8:15 with Mrs. Ted Godshall presiding. Mr. Stewart Baur, Director of Finance for Penn Laurel Girl Scout Council spoke to the leaders, Asst. Leaders, and troop Committee members about sustaining membership. Mrs. Gerald Sheetz was nominated and voted as an alternate from our Neighborhood to the Penn Laurel Girl Scout Council.

It was announced that the Spring Council meeting will be held at the Chalet in Dillsburg April 14 starting with dinner at 6:30 followed by the meeting. There will be a bus leaving Memorial Park in Mount Joy, at 4:45 to take anyone who is interested in going to the Council meeting. Those persons interested in attending the meeting should contact Mrs. Ted Godshall Neighborhood chairman by April 1.

Mrs. Charles Shoemaker gave a report on Day Camp and told the leaders all registrations must be in by May 13. No later ones will be accepted. The dates of Day Camp are June 13-17 to be held at the Cove and Sports Farm. Bus transportation will be furnished from Marietta and Maytown to the Day Camp.

Mrs. Shoemaker told the leaders to tell their girls to save their oatmeal boxes and coffee cans and tuna fish or cat food or chicken cans. The oatmeal and coffee cans will be used at Day Camp to make drums for our family night. The other cans are to be used to make buddy burners.

It was also announced that if any troops are interested in marching in the Mount Joy Memorial Day parade, they are to contact Mrs. Warren Foley, phone 653-9321 by April 1.

The next neighborhood meeting will be held Tuesday, May 3, 1966 at 6:30 p.m. at Sico Park. The service pins for number of years registered will be awarded. This meeting will be a covered dish supper. Each person to bring her own place setting, hamburger or a hot dog, drink and rolls. The women from Marietta will bring baked beans, Mount Joy area salad, Maytown area, dessert.

Troop 27 of Mount Joy will have a barbecue April 23rd from 3 to 6 p.m.. It will be held at the Mount Joy railroad station on Henry St.

PLAY IT SAFE!

Farming holds certain financial hazards . . .

Fortunately, many of them can be eliminated by means of a well-planned program. Stop at County Farmers Bank today and see Farm Consultant Stanley Musselman, whose office is at 23 East King street, Lancaster. Whether it's money or just plain advice you need . . . you and he should get together.

Listen regularly to these County Farmers Bank radio broadcasts:
7:00 A.M.—News—WGAL and WLAN—Monday thru Saturday.
5:55 P.M.—News—WSBA—Monday thru Friday.
9:55 P.M.—'Our Changing World'—WDAC-FM—Monday thru Friday.

LANCASTER COUNTY FARMERS NATIONAL BANK

12 Convenient Offices to Serve You

LANCASTER QUARRYVILLE

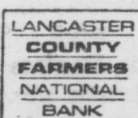

MOUNT JOY CHRISTIANA

MAIN OFFICE: 23 EAST KING STREET, LANCASTER

(Open 'til 6 P.M. Mon. thru Thurs - 'til 8. P.M. Friday)

Drive-in Window at Mount Joy Office open 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Saturday

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
Trustee for The Lancaster County Foundation

