Spring made its visit last Friday in advance of the official date, March 21. This massive heat wave sent Mrs.
Myers and Mrs. Sales into the patio to prepare the patio flower borders for planting:

Our Home is sorry to report the need of Miss Blanche Speer to be in St. Joseph's hospital. All wish her a speedy recovery.

Misses Mary and Dorothy Miller, Lena Smith and Mary Miller, all from York, made a surprise trip to visit with Miss Sarah Emswiler.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beaver, Lancaster, had as their guest Sunday, their aunt, Mrs. Rose Spengler.

Two nieces, Mrs. Mary Hoffman, and Mrs. Collins and Grand daughter, Harrisburg, were callers to see Mrs.
Betty Heikes.

Mrs. Evelyn Hershey spent most of a week with Mrs.
Lloyd Hershey, Lancaster.
She attended the funeral on Tuesday, of a nephew, Rev.
Jacob Singer, of Herndon, Pa. She attended a birthday celebration; a conference and dinner at The Calvary Independent church; and visited with her grand daughter, who attends the Lancaster School of the Bible.

Mrs. Fred Austin, daughter and granddaughter of Mrs. Wilhelmina Echternach were callers at the home.

Mrs. Edna Huck, Marietta and Mrs. W. R. Barrett, of Lancaster, Eugene Daub (Secretary of Sunday School for 50 years of Miss Mabel Walmer's church, Lebanon, and Harry Boyer, were all callers at the Home to see Miss Walmer.

Willett G. McCord, Harrisburg, on his way to call on his mother at St. Joseph's hospital, stopped to take Miss Mary Gregg along.

Miss Laura Deremer's birthday, March 17 was celebrated all week. Besides those reported last week were the following: Mrs. Dotty Heisey, Rheems, Miss Margaret Stoner, Elizabethtown, Julia Holmes R. D. 1, Mrs. Ellis Mitchell and son Ellis, Kennett Square.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Brubaker, now living at Indiana, Pa. once lived in a house where the EUB parsonage stands.
The Schocks' were living then. He was anxious to see the inside changes since it is the Presbyterian Home.

Mrs. Paul Miller, Pauline Kahl, Lancaster and Mrs. Lena E. Ditzler, Hershey, were callers at the Home.

Wayne Fasnact and twins visited Miss Ethel Henry.

Miss Sara Wait is visiting her sister Miss Edna Buchanan this week at Lancaster.

SOOT AFIRE

A fire in a chimney at the Gerberich-Payne Shoe Company on West Main street, at 11:45 p.m. Wednesday, March 16, was cause for an alarm sounded to Friendship Fire company.

The fire, which apparently started in an accumulation of soot, was confined to the chimney and caused no damage.

RUMMAGE SALE

A rummage sale, sponsored by the Elizabethtown Chapter, No. 407, O. E. S., will be held Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2, in Mount Joy.

Seventh Grade

Gives Program

The Donegal Annex assembly program for Friday, Mar.
11, was in charge of Section 7A.

announcer and gave 2 readings. A skit entitled "Gone To the Moon" was given by Steven Sprout, Larry Hendrix, John Edye, Theresa Sauder, Dianne Espinoza and Karl Mumma.

Raye Ann Turner and Sandra Creamer gave a TV commercial; Josie Stauffer and Patricia Horst sang a song; Mary Jane Hess read a poem entitled "Washington" and Larry Hendrix played a piano solo called "Cheerfulness"

Susan Nissley, Dianne Espinoza and James Newcomer gave another T. V. commercial; Dianne Espinoza and Sandra Creamer sang "I have a Boyfriend;" Donna McKain and Patsy Ebersole sang "I Fought the Law," and a second skit entitled "A New Cinderella" was presented by Debra Swingler, Patti Reisinger, Sandra Creamer, Raye Ann Turner, Eugene Barninger and Marianne Koser.

Blough also gave a commercial.

Students Visit

Federal Reserve

Michael Kear and Jack Linard, Donegal high school, and Donna Aument, Hempfield high school, were among 23 top economics students who were taken on an educational tour of the Philadelphia Federal Reserve bank on Wednesday, Mar. 9.

The trip, sponsored by the Lancaster County Farmers National Bank, included a guided tour of Independence Hall.

At the Federal Reserve Bank the group saw a computer that processes over one thousand checks per minute.

Students of area high schools who attained the highest grades in economics for the first semester of the year were selected for the tour. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Paul A.
Bucks, director of publicity for the bank, as well as these members of the staff: Mrs.
Nancy Groff, Barry Maddox, and Ronald Hollenbaugh.

Robert William Longenecker, son of Linn W. Longenecker, Manheim R4, recently was chosen as Boy Of The Month by the Hershey Rotary Club. Dr. Richard Rudi-sill, a club member and head of Milton Hershey Schools, presented Robert, at a Rotary luncheon held Mar. 15, with a certificate of Outstanding Scholastic and Character Merit. He is the first boy from the Jr. Division of the Hershey Schools to receive this honor.

Robert is a fifth grade student and is active in the following: — president of his class, cornet player in the Elementary, in which he received an instrumental award Band; Jr. Boys' choir, Honor Roll, and various athletic sports.

He resides at Kinderhaus, where the house parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Shilling.

group met in the Donegal Annex home economic room Wednesday evening, March 16, with Mrs. Robert Brown serving as the hostess for this monthly meeting.

Messiah to Build

Hall of Science

Messiah College will undertake a capital fund campaign to raise $560,000 toward construction of an $840,000 Hall of Science building on its Grantham campus, it was announced this week by Dr. D.
Ray Hostetter, president.

Financial support will be sought during the campaign from business, industry, individuals, foundations, the college Board of Trustees and Associates alumni, parents, and others, Dr. Hostetter said.

"Student enrollment has grown 300 per cent since '51 when the college first became a degree-granting institution" the president stated.

"Careful projections into the future indicate that some 850 students will be attending classes by 1970, a 130% increase over the present student body numbering 369."

The president said that about 600 of the anticipated 850 students will be from the eight-county Central Pennsylvania area.

Al Brooks, Donegal high school's head football coach, and Walter Price, assistant, are representing Donegal H.
S. at the football coaches' clinic, being held this week in Atlantic City.
