Special Guest at Maytown

The Arnold Finks had a very special guest last Thursday afternoon. He was S/Sgt.

Larry S. Huyett, who captained the rescue crew that rescued Astronauts Neil Armstrong and David Scott after they were forced to land their space craft, Gemini 8. Sgt. Huyett is a nine-year veteran of the Air Force and returned to United States March 23. He is 29 years old and a native of Manchester, York Co. He has appeared on the Ed Sullivan show and many other radio and Television programs. He has acquired two distinguished flying cross medals and several other medals while on his two year tour of duty in Viet Nam.

Sgt. Huyett wears the "Maroon Beret" of the Pararescue and Recovery Squadron. This squadron was first formed in 1947 and there are only 170 members throughout the world. Their motto is "These Things We Do That Others May Live." He was on leave but was called back to Okinawa. Sgt. Joseph Middendorf of the Lancaster Recruiting Office of the Air Force also was a guest of the Finks. Seaman James H. Geig, U. S. N. has returned to the Amphibious Base at Little Creek, Va. aboard the tank landing ship USS Waldo County after spending seven weeks at sea.
