with those who were privileged to become acquainted with her during her brief stay.

Especially delightful, no doubt, are the memories which the Dr. John Stauffers will have, for one morning Kristina helped Mrs. Stauffer make Finnish cookies for a farewell picnic which the Rotary hosts and hostesses were giving the next night.

"It was a delightful experience," Mrs. Stauffer said. "We made five kinds, all of them delicious! It was a little hard, or even impossible, to find some of the necessary ingredients—potato flour, for example.

"And the measurements in the recipes were in 'pounds,' not cupsful.

"But we managed, and it was lots of fun!"
We can imagine that the delectable odors from that morning's baking will 'haunt' the Stauffer house for many months to come!

Did you realize there were two full moons in August? Such a thing is quite rare, but it CAN happen. The first full moon was on Aug. 1, and the second on Aug. 30!

Two "Harvest Moons," were they? How delightful!!

Perhaps, technically, they were not harvest moons, for we seem to remember that such an honor belongs to October's full moon!

But, in Lancaster County, the August moons could aspire to that honor, too, if we can believe what we saw at Root's Market on Tuesday night!

Such a bountiful "harvest" problem — money. The series is one which is presented free of charge to the public but some actually are a little expensive to bring to Mount Joy.

In fact, of the various activities which Community Council promote for Mount Joy, the "Music in the Park" series is the most expensive. To bring a musical organization which carry 30 or 40 men takes a chunk of cash.

The Council has been "kicking around" various proposals for financing the series and a way to keep them going must be found.

as there must have been (even in spite of this summer's drought) to make possible the fabulous array of good things to eat at the various stands!

There were the most beautiful tomatoes we have ever seen, the fattest, smoothest potatoes, the reddest halves of watermelons, the goldenest of cantaloupes, the greenest of peppers, and the yellowest of corn—all in such abundance that it took our breath away!

"Roots", at any season, is fascinating. But right now it is surely outdoing itself with good things to eat from "The Garden Spot."

One girl's complaint: "There are three kinds of men—the rich, the handsome, and the majority."
