MOUNT JOY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1966

SEVEN CENTS

This week Mount Joy, with some other locations in the county, began a new phase in telephone service. Local subscribers may call toll-free to Manheim, Lancaster and Landisville now in the exact same way they would call neighbors across the street.

Although it is not something immediate, within the relatively near future, local telephone subscribers who have private lines will be able to make long-distance calls without giving their own number to the operator.

The person calling will simply dial the number of the person with whom he wishes to speak (using suitable prefixes etc. Automatic equipment will take care of the recording to numbers and thus handle all details of the call without the services of an operator.

But—that's still in the future.

Monday night, October 24, should be an interesting date in local government.

On that evening the Mount Joy Borough Council will hold a public meeting — at 7:30 o'clock — in the fire hall to discuss a proposal to build a new combination use building on the site of the present Florin Hall.

Council has represented that the meeting will be more than open to the public. Council apparently wants an expression of opinion. The proposal, as brought to council by its special building committee, may run, $60,000, $70,000 or maybe $80,000 or more. Such an amount, such an ambitious program, members of council feel, should be supported by an expression of public feeling.

Although we have heard strong feelings expressed privately — both for and against the proposal — not many people are talking "for the record." What will happen at the meeting on the 24th is anyone's guess.

As outlined in its report to

'Of This and That'

We have it on good authority that at 6:05 Sunday evening, 300 wild geese flew over Mount Joy, headed south.

Our informant told us that they were probably going to use the remaining half hour or so of daylight to reach feeding grounds along the bay in Maryland.

Wild geese heading south—a light frost—the first fire in the fireplace—rolls of snow fence piled along the roadsides—when these things appear, can winter be far behind?

But, until winter actually does arrive, we can enjoy October! The autumn flowers were never lovelier, and we especially recommend a look at the chrysanthemums at the Paul Hipple home on west Main street.

New Bus Line Thru Boro

A new bus service for Mount Joy will begin on Sunday, October 30, it has been announced by Capitol Trailways.

Three buses each day, both east and west will terminate in Harrisburg and in Lancaster but will connect with all points.

Regular 38-passenger buses will be used on regular schedule. Passengers will be received along Main street on a "flag" basis.

Capitol has been granted a franchise to operate the route by the State Public Utilities Commission.

However, a franchise for bus service between Elizabethtown and Lancaster already is held by the Conestoga company. Thus, Trailways can not be used for such local trips. But residents going beyond these points will be able to ride the new line.

Persons living in Lancaster, Mount Joy, Elizabethtown, Middletown, Highspire and Steelton will be able to board a Trailways bus in these communities and travel anywhere in the country on Trailways lines. The service will feature a package express to anywhere in the U. S.

In Lancaster the terminal is at 235 North Lime and in Harrisburg at 4th and Chestnut.

The schedule, announced this week calls for buses from Lancaster westward at 9:45 a.m., 3:45 p.m. and 8:45 p.m., passing through Mount Joy about 10:05, 4:05 and 9:05. From Harrisburg, buses are scheduled to leave for Lancaster at 8:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and 5 p.m., coming through Mount Joy at 9:09, 2:39 and 5:39.

C. of C. Directors To Hold Meeting

Directors of the Mount Joy Chamber of Commerce will meet Monday evening, Oct. 24, for their monthly session. The meeting will be held at the home of president, Harold Keller, 268 Marietta Avenue, beginning at 7 p.m.

Firemen To Honor 50-Year Members

Three members of Friendship Fire Company No. 1 will receive unusual honors on Thursday night, Nov. 3, when the firemen hold their monthly meeting.

Each of the three will receive a 50-year pin, recognizing the fact they have been members of the fire company for half a century.

They are Henry G. Carpenter and Daniel A. Schroll, both of Mount Joy, and Quinton Amspacker of Hanover, until recently of this borough. Company President James Schneider will be in charge.

Speaker will be Paul Knier county fire marshal.

'EL TORO' ?

Not Around Here

Bull fighting in America? You say "It can't happen here?"

Don't be too sure! Glen Leib and his marching Donegal high school band may fool you!

They have an "El Toro" routine ready for the half-time program at the Donegal Conestoga Valley Homecoming football game Saturday afternoon on the Donegal athletic field.

Those who saw a ship sailing on dry land at the last home football game, wouldn't be surprised to see a bull fight at this one!

The Mount Joy Lions Club will present its annual Halloween parade Saturday night, Oct. 29 beginning at 7 p.m.
