For Counsellors

Joyce-ettes Meet

Miss Lily E. Martin, Park avenue, guidance counsellor at Donegal high school, and George F. Broske, School Lane, counsellor at Hempfield high school, were among those who attended a conference sponsored by the Wilson College Office of Admissions for guidance people from Pennsylvania and western Maryland, Nov. 16 and 17.

The group was welcomed to the campus by Paul Swain Havens, a Rhodes scholar and president of the college, who explained that Wilson was founded in 1869 as one of the nation's first colleges for women. He reported that Wilson has an enrollment of 741 students representing 30 states, Washington, D. C., Puerto Rico, and nine foreign countries.

At one of the sessions, there was a simulated meeting of the Admissions Committee in which the actual credentials of unidentified applicants were examined and evaluated. Committee members explained the procedures in handling applications, and the visiting counsellors were invited to join in discussing qualifications which a college admissions office considers significant.

Attend Parley

The Joyce-ettes held their meeting on Nov. 21 at the VFW home, at which Mrs. Warren Foley of the Girl Scouts was the guest speaker and presented us with a slide presentation on camping. We all thoroughly enjoyed this.

The Joyce-ettes are also placing canisters throughout the community stores for "Operation Pretzel." Operation Pretzel is to send pretzels to the area service men overseas. We would appreciate pictures with their names and addresses of the local men overseas. Please contact Mrs. Thomas Moran in Marietta.

November hostess were Joan Moore, Nancy Brown and Nancy Martin. Our December meeting will be a dinner meeting at the Watering Trough.
