

Deaths

GERARD R. ZIELKE

Gerard R. Zielke, 58, 625 W. Main St., the founder of the G. Zielke Orthotic and Prosthetic Co., Inc. died Saturday morning, Dec. 30, in the University of Pennsylvania hospital after an illness of several months.

Born in Stegel, Germany, he was the son of Hans and Lina Wirth Zielke, of Brentwood, Long Island, N. Y.

Prior to 1945 when he founded his business in Mount Joy, he resided in Elizabethtown, where he was associated with the State Hospital for Crippled Children as an orthotist.

Recently he had built and opened a new office building at 900 N. Duke St., Lancaster.

He was serving as vice-president of the Penna. Orthopedic Prosthetic Society. He was also a member of the American Orthopedic Prosthetic Society, the Lancaster Muzzle Loading Rifle Assoc., and the Kentucky Rifle Assoc.

A life-time member of the Mount Joy Sportsman's Association, he was a former member of the Rotary Club of Mount Joy and a member of the Christ United Church of Christ of Elizabethtown.

In addition to his parents he is survived by his wife, Eleanor Grosser Zielke; a son Don, of Mount Joy; a daughter, Eleanor, wife of Clayton G. Francis, Lancaster; a sister, Mrs. Hertha Kneeling, Long Island, N. Y.; a brother, Hans R. Zielke, Norwood, Pa.; and a grandson.

Funeral services were held from the Trinity Lutheran church Wednesday at 11 a.m. and burial was made in the Mount Joy cemetery.

MARY M. BISHOP

Mrs. Mary M. Bishop, 69, wife of Irvin L. Bishop, 321 N. Market Ave., died at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 26, at her home.

She was born in Florin, a daughter of the late Joseph and Rebecca Short McGarvey and lived all her life in the Mount Joy area. She was a member of the Glossbrenner EUB church, Mount Joy.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two brothers: William McGarvey, Mount Joy, and Peter McGarvey, of Annville.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, Dec. 29, from the Sheetz funeral home and burial was made in the Camp Hill cemetery.

DEBORAH L. HIPPLE

Mrs. Deborah L. Hipple, 73, of 356 E. Market St., Marietta, died at St. Joseph's hospital Thursday afternoon, Dec. 21. She had been in ill health, but death was unexpected.

She was the wife of Benton G. Hipple, and daughter of the late Paul H. and Sarah Light.

She was a member of the Donegal Chapter 422, Order of Eastern Star, Marietta; William Brenner Post 466, American Legion Auxiliary; Columbia hospital Auxiliary; and the English United Presbyterian church.

Survivors besides her husband include nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held from the Smedley funeral home Sunday, Dec. 24, and burial was made in the Ebenzer cemetery, Lebanon.

HARVEY L. MUMMA

Harvey L. Mumma, 73, of 2121 Old Philadelphia Pike, died Thursday, Dec. 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the General hospital after an illness of four months.

Born in Mount Joy, a son of the late Clayton and Mina Miller Mumma, he resided in Lancaster 25 years and previously was a resident of Marietta.

Surviving are his wife, Miriam E. Sperla Mumma; three daughters, Elva M., wife of Mervin Linard, Marietta; Dorothy V., wife of Eugene W. Dyer, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; and Bertie M., wife of Francis P. Miller, of Lancaster; 11 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, and six sisters, Mrs. Edith Corwell, Mrs. Elsie Shire, Mrs. Carrie Wolfe, Mrs. Estella Wolfe, all of York; Dora, wife of Samuel Snyder, of York Haven; and Bertie, wife of Joseph Alfano, York.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Groff funeral home in Lancaster and burial was made in Conestoga Memorial Park.

PAULINE H. PEIFER

Mrs. Pauline H. Peifer, 69, wife of Cyrus W. Peifer, 23 Mount Joy St., died at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 31, at her home after an illness of about three months.

The couple observed their 53rd wedding anniversary on July 20.

She was born in Mount Joy, daughter of the late Henry and Susan Heisey Krall.

She was a member of St. Mark's EUB church.

Surviving besides her husband, include five children, Charles R. Peifer, Mount Joy; June, wife of Martin Houser, Middletown; Robert Peifer, at home; Cyrus K. Peifer Jr. and Grant Peifer, both of Lancaster; nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Heilig funeral home and burial was made in the Eberle cemetery.

J. RICHARD GREENAWALT

J. Richard Greenawalt, 59, husband of Ida Mae Hemperly Greenawalt, 432 Nevin St., died at 10:50 p.m. Monday, January 1, at St. Joseph's Hospital after an illness of two months.

He was born in Mount Joy a son of the late John W. and Estella Brown Greenawalt, and had resided in the Lancaster area for the past 33 years.

For the past six years he was manager of the West End Market Basket, and had always worked as a grocer.

Besides his wife, surviving are a son, Richard L., of Lancaster; a grandson and the following brothers and sisters:

Mary, wife of Howard Landvater, Mount Joy; Warren H., Mount Joy; Kathryn, wife of Elias Landvater, of Rheems, and Henry B. Greenawalt, Hershey RD.

Funeral services were set for Thursday at 1:30 p.m. from the Groff funeral home, Lancaster, and burial in the Millersville cemetery.

HONORED

Staff Sergeant Robert W. Messersmith, son of Steven W. Messersmith, 940 West Church St., has received the U. S. Air Force Commendation Medal at Tan Son Nhut AB, Vietnam.

Sergeant Messersmith was decorated for meritorious service as a communications specialist at Kelly AFB, Tex. He was cited for his outstanding ability and initiative in the accomplishment of his duties.

He is now assigned at Tan Son Nhut in support of the Pacific Air Forces.

The sergeant is a graduate of Halifax, Pa. high school. His wife is the former Setsuko Okamoto from Japan.

Do you have an outdoor job? If so, the American Cancer Society recommends that you take care to avoid excessive sun over too many years. Consult your physician about what precautions you should take to prevent the harmful effect of too much sun.

The Mount Joy BULLETIN

MOUNT JOY, PENNA.

Published Weekly on Wednesdays
Except Fourth of July Week and Christmas Week
(50 Issues Per Year)

11 EAST MAIN STREET, MOUNT JOY, PENNA., 17552
In the heart of fabulous Lancaster County.

Richard A. Rainbolt

Editor

and

Publisher

Subscription Rate - $2.50 per year by mail.
Advertising Rates upon request.
Entered as the post office at Mount Joy, Penna., as second class mail under the Act of March 3, 1879.

LANDISVILLE - SALUNGA NEWS

An early Christmas was held for Mrs. Mary Covert, a Silver Spring resident confined to her home, Saturday, Dec. 16 when girls from Brownie Troop 332, of Farmdale, sponsored by Hempfield EUB church Young Adult class, provided a Christmas dinner and a decorated tree.

Each troop member contributed a food item and decorated the tree with felt ornaments made at an earlier troop meeting.

The girls concluded their visit by singing Christmas carols, and then returned to the home of Mrs. Jere Huber of 785 Harper Ave., Lancaster for a Christmas party.

Salunga Community Caroling was held Saturday night, Dec. 23rd at 9:30 p.m.

Everyone met at the Salunga Fire House, beside the Christmas Tree.

Coffee, cookies, hot chocolate were served at Brethren Church basement after caroling.

This project is sponsored by the Salunga Picnic Committee.

Several yuletide programs were scheduled at the elementary schools of Hempfield Union School District.

On Monday afternoon, December 18, at the Farmdale elementary school the school band featured in "Toyland" was led by Mrs. Helen LePage.

The school orchestra, under the direction of Miss Zoe Cummings played several numbers. Also heard were choral groups representing the six grades, who were under the direction of Mrs. Geraldine Getz and Mrs. Helen Brenisen.

Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 20 the Rohrerstown elementary school held its musical for all pupils and invited parents.

The Mountville elementary celebrated the season with a visit from Santa Claus. Thursday morning, Dec. 21. Under the auspices of the Mountville Lions Club and the Mountville VFW, Santa made his visit to the school riding a fire engine. He distributed bags of Christmas goodies and a toy to each child in kindergarten thru the fourth grade.

Irene McElrea, 17, a senior at Hempfield high school was named winner of the "Voice of Democracy" contest held recently under the sponsorship by Reese-Hall Post 8757 VFW, Mountville.

Miss McElrea will represent the Post at the 21st annual contest in the Lancaster County competition on January 7.

Miss McElrea won a $25.00 savings bond and a medal as winner of the contest at Hempfield high school. Miss McElrea participates in concert, marching band, yearbook, math club and American Field Service. She also is a member of the National Honor Society and is a national merit scholar.

elementary school. She will be replaced by William Hoff of Altoona, who is completing his student teaching at Hempfield.

Resigning are Mrs. Shirley Bertz, third grade teacher at Landisville. Elementary and Mrs. Maryanne Kocenour of the senior high Commercial Dept. Mrs. Butz will be replaced by Miss Mary Ann Kauffman, Landisville, who is due to graduate from Elizabethtown College in January. Mrs. Kocenour will be replaced by Mrs. Lynn Spangler, a graduate of Penn State now teaching at Reynold's Junior high.

Miss Diane Pyzowski, who is due to graduate from Millersville in January, will replace Mrs. Lelia Stauffer in the 5th grade at Rohrerstown Elementary while Mrs. Stauffer is on second semester sabbatical leave.

A children's service at the Zion Lutheran Church of Landisville was conducted on Christmas eve.

The service featured the Junior choir. A second service featured the Senior choir. Both choirs are under the direction of Howard Williams.

The Senior High Fellowship sponsored a carol sing throughout Landisville on Saturday evening. Persons of all ages were invited. The group left the church at 7 p.m. and returned for refreshments at around 8 p.m.

The January meeting of the Mount Joy American Legion auxiliary has been cancelled, due to the inclement weather. The next meeting will be held the first Thursday in February.

To Show Slides At Trinity Church

On Sunday, January 14, Dr. and Mrs. John Paul, Jr. will present a co-ordinated slide and tape presentation on "Thailand" at Trinity Lutheran church. This will be the program for the January meeting of the Lutheran Church Women. It will be held in the church parish house at 7:30 p.m. The public is welcome.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul, Jr. will present an inclusive picture of life as it is lived there — by the natives, not the tourists. Thailand (formerly called "Siam") is half-way around the world from our town; it is beside Cambodia and it is very close to Vietnam. A question and answer period will follow the pictures.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul, Jr. (of Lancaster) spend one month every year working in a mission hospital either here or abroad. They were in Thailand during November of '65, in New Mexico in 1966, and will have been in Haiti this past month. Dr. Paul is a medical doctor and his wife is a medical technologist. They are supported, in part, by the First Presbyterian Church of Lancaster.

The first clock (one-day backwind alarm clock) in a metal case was made in 1876 by the Seth Thomas Clock Co., of Thomaston, Conn.

YOUR BROTHERS NEED . . .

About one hundred relocating families in Lancaster need serviceable furniture to make their new homes habitable.

Do you have beds, tables, chairs, lamps, which you can spare for the comfort of your fellow men?

If so, call

Thomas Mariner 653-5320