Letter to the Editor

December 22, 1967

Dear Sir,

While I have not had the pleasure of meeting you personally I do have a couple friends who work for you in the back room there by the names of Curley and Paul. I thought you might like to know that I enjoy reading your paper and also to mention the fact that on my return from Frankfurt, Germany, the other day I met a man who said his wife was from Mount Joy and was the aunt of Leo and Charlie Frank, two long time friends.

I told him I was a native of Mount Joy and I considered Lancaster County the nicest place of all my world travels. I serve as a Purser on the MAC operation of Eastern Air Lines. It is my responsibility to brief my crew on emergency procedures, make announcements, handle all military and government paper work and see that the trip runs smoothly in the cabin. I had the opportunity to fly to Germany, Spain and England nine times and Viet Nam three times thus far. We fly from Tacoma and stop in Honolulu, Wake, Guam and on in to Viet Nam. We return by way of the Philippines and have long layovers but the troops get there in about 20 hours. On my layover in Germany last week I flew down to Rome where I had the pleasure of tetter, Millersville, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Joseph Hostetter, Elizabethtown R1.

A '64 graduate of Donegal high school, and Lancaster School of Practical Nursing, class of 1966, the bride-elect is employed by Lancaster General hospital.

Her fiance, a 1965 graduate of Elizabethtown high school is a student at Millersville State College and is employed by Acme Markets. The wedding is planned for May 26.

visiting the Vatican, Coliseum and down into the two thousand year old catacombs. On the way home I found Iceland was not nearly as cold as the Jersey-New York area. This is due to the proximity of the Gulf Stream.

Of This 'n That

Rev. and William Groff of Elizabethtown. Rev. Groff is pastor of the Elizabethtown Church of God, and Mrs. Groff is the kindergarten teacher at Grandview elementary school here in Mt. Joy.

When Rev. Groff was attending seminary in Findlay, Ohio, he and Mrs. Groff were advisors for the youth group in their church.

One of the junior high lads was a bright, friendly, promising young chap whom everyone called "Little Harry".

That same young chap is now an I.U. sophomore, star halfback of the football team and is affectionately known to thousands as "Harry (Go-Go) Gonso!"

Needless to say, the Groffs were rooting madly for their erstwhile "little" friend!

Yet another young man was bragging to us last week of his "moment of glory" in connection with the famous I. U. team.

Ray Peacoe, now biology teacher in a Port Washington, N.Y. junior high school was a dinner guest with his wife and baby son just before Christmas. Ray received his master's degree from Indiana University in 1965, and during his year there he often coached one of this year's football "greats" who had trouble with biology!

So "it's a small world, after all" But a good world. And we wish for all our readers, a "good" year in 1968. Happy New Year!
