6 TIPS FOR SAFER WINTER DRIVING

By Professor A. H. Easton
Director, Motor Vehicle Research Laboratory
University of Wisconsin

1* Get the "feel" of the road by accelerating carefully to see if wheels spin; or brake gently to see if they skid. Reduce speed accordingly.

2* Increase your following distance. It takes three to nine times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry pavement.

3* "Pump" your brakes to slow or stop — don't jam them on. An intermittent pumping action three to five times per second keeps the wheels rolling and helps maintain steering control.

4* Have good tires with good treads. Better yet, use snow tires which provide half again as much pulling power in snow as regular tires. Studded snow tires offer still more help on icy surfaces.

BRAKING DISTANCE
FROM 20 MPH ON GLARE ICE AT 25°F (Traction Equipment on Rear Wheels Only)
REGULAR TIRES	149 FT.
CONVENTIONAL SNOW TIRES	151 FT.
STUDDED SNOW TIRES	120 FT.
REINFORCED TIRE CHAINS	75 FT.

5* Always carry reinforced tire chains in the trunk of your car for use during severe snow and ice conditions. They provide four to seven times as much traction on snow or ice as regular tires.

6* Keep your windshield and windows clear at all times. Replace streaking wiper blades gone dead from exposure to sun, wind and oily road film. Be sure that your windshield washer solution contains adequate anti-freeze.

their place of business to make the change.

They entered, but did not turn on any of the main lights. They were in the store a few minutes, accomplished their mission and went back outside.

Guess who was standing ready to grab them as they stepped out the front door? It was a couple of Mount Joy's police officers. Someone had noticed the shadowy figures inside the business place and had called the police. And, they had responded almost instantly, for the couple had not been inside their store but a very very short time.

It's easy to jump on the police and say, "They're never around when you want 'em." These people found out that the police are around.

These young people so indignant about "the establishment" will get over it as soon as they get established.

Be just and fear not; let all the ends thou aimest at be thy country thy God's and truths. —Shakespeare
