It appears logical that the "technicalities" mentioned may well be part of the tug of war.

It is worth repeating that the NCR tract of land was annexed to the borough many months ago and that the Borough of Mount Joy has been receiving taxes from that property. But, the area at the east edge of the borough has not been annexed for school purposes. Such an annexation is completely separate from the borough annexation. In the past, legal decisions have been such that the borough limits and the school limits have followed the same lines.

Mugmates And Brownies

Brimming "Mugmates" and Peanut Brownies kick off the course of refreshment for the school term. With some paint and imagination teenagers can make colorful "Mug-mates" out of plain mugs. It's a great way to spark up the after-school coffee party.

For the new hostess here's a lively spiced coffee: For each two large mugfuls, brew regular-strength coffee using 4 Approved Coffee Measures of coffee (equal to 8 level measuring table-spoons) and 3 measuring cups water. Pour hot coffee over 2 cinnamon sticks, 4 whole cloves and 4 allspice berries. Let stand over lowest heat for 10 to 15 minutes. Strain into mugs and serve with sugar and whipped cream if desired.

Every hostess should have a dependable brownie recipe she prepares with ease. Whether a beginning baker or a practiced one, this peanut butter version is a must for your recipe repertoire.

Peanut Brownies

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------|
| 1/4 cup butter or margarine | 1 cup sifted cake flour |
| 1/4 cup creamy peanut butter | 1/4 teaspoon baking powder |
| 2 squares (2 oz.) unsweetened chocolate | 1/4 teaspoon salt |
| 2 eggs | 1 cup coarsely chopped peanuts |
| 1 cup sugar | 1 teaspoon vanilla |

Combine butter, peanut butter and chocolate in top of double boiler. Cook over hot water until chocolate melts, stirring to blend. Beat eggs. Add sugar gradually while beating. Add chocolate mixture; beat hard 1 minute. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt; stir in. Add peanuts and vanilla. Pour into greased 8-inch square pan. Bake in moderate oven, 350°, 40 minutes or until done. Cut into squares while warm.
