

MEMO - Mount Joy - 1968

- 1.—Work for an attractive, public park at the Cove, keeping in mind that this is one of the most historic spots in our entire community.
- 2.—Encourage public and/or private capital to launch a tourist attraction which will put Mount Joy "on the map."
- 3.—Buy and regularly use a borough-owned street sweeper.
- 4.—Press for completion of the codification of borough ordinances.
- 5.—Enlarge the "Music in the Park" project.
- 6.—Start now to provide more water for our community, cooperating and participating with any agency which is interested in such a project.
- 7.—Get the Wood street rebuilding project firmly and certainly launched this summer with a firm schedule for completion.
- 8.—Press for improvement on Manheim street between Mount Joy and the site of the new 230 Bypass interchange, including the drainage problems in the area of the Little Chiques creek bridge.
- 9.—Take steps to insure that property within the borough has fire plugs located within reasonable protection ranges.
- 10.—Begin immediately to develop plans for the newly acquired borough building, to make it into an efficient, attractive and useful addition to the borough's facilities, including adequate headquarters for the police department.

BPW Chapter Observes National 'Week'

"All Systems Go - Unite, Share, Act" will be the theme of National Business Women's Week, to be observed in Mount Joy and across the country during the week of October 20 - 26. An annual event since 1928 National Business Women's Week is sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. During the week approximately 178,500 members in over 3800 clubs join together in a national tribute to business and professional women.

Mount Joy B.P.W. club members will be recognized easily by the golden yellow mum corsages they will be wearing during this designated week to spotlight their contribution as career women to our community and of all career women to our country and to the world.

The objectives of the federation are to elevate the standards for women in business and the professions—to promote the interests of business and professional women—to bring about a spirit of cooperation among the business and professional women through education along lines of industrial, scientific and vocational activities. In communities throughout the country the achievements and contributions of these women to local, national and world events are spotlighted.

The local B.P.W. club has 73 members and constitutes an active group of women—not only as club women but in their various and respective occupations in the business world. Included in the membership are: co-owners, teachers, dental assistants, cafeteria managers, secretaries, bookkeepers, registered nurses, bank tellers, funeral directress, florist, co-partners,
