Murphy Posts Gains

Sales, pre-tax and net earnings before non-recurring loss of G. C. Murphy Company for the first nine months of 1968 showed gains over the same period of 1967, according to President E. L. Paxton. Pre-tax earnings of $7,648,000 were up $919,000.

Net earnings before non-recurring loss were $3,831,000 or $.93 per share compared with $3,699,000 or $.90 for the same 1967 period. The non-recurring loss, after taxes, of $173,000 from the sale of 10 unprofitable Terry Farris stores reduced earnings $.04 per share to $3,658,000. The 10% Federal surtax effective January 1, 1968 lowered this year's earning by $.08 per share.

There were 502 stores in operation at September 30, 1968 compared with 509 one year earlier.

Yet, the very fact of his intimate knowledge of Washington's manipulations is why I can not vote for Humphrey.

I have become tired of the way things are going in Washington and I want to see a change. The vice-president's close association with the mess I do not like are at the bottom of why I can not cast my vote for him on November 5.

To negotiate the war in Vietnam away on the eve of election without victory is not to my liking. Little has changed in Vietnam, actually, since American boys began to fight and die.

Thus, I shall vote for Richard Nixon.

There are several things I like about the man who has a small-town background in California and a tinge of Pennsylvania Dutch in his family.

He is a relatively poor man and, after the saturated dosage of powerful wealth in the White House which the American people have had in recent years, I will welcome a president who is more of a "self-made" man. It is too much to ask for a man these days to have been born in a log cabin. But, a man with the common touch has an appeal, for a change.

Nixon will bring to Washington a CHANGE.

I feel that there is need for a change to dispell the establishment which has left too many people suspicious of the government.

That same need for change extends around the world. If as we are told, the image of Uncle Sam is not a bright one, we need a change.

Nixon has not been part of a team which has left the people uncertain, unhappy and uninformed.

Suspicion by association is not a taint upon Nixon.

He will be a breath of fresh fresh air, cleaning out the eight years of entrenchment which have begun to alarm the people with its callousness.

Nixon has a tremendous background of experience to bring to federal government. On the world scene for many years, he has had more opportunity to view and to evaluate the big picture than probably any man now in politics.

That, then, is why I will vote for Richard Nixon next Tuesday.

Marietta Republicans this week are pointing with a certain amount of pride.

This is the first presidential campaign in at least 50 years, so we are told by the poets of that community, that a major party has had a campaign headquarters open in Marietta.

Located on Market street in the heart of things, the headquarters was open Friday night for the big Halloween Parade and helped to whoop up the activities of the evening.
