out into the light, so that there could be a good root formation before the leaves started.

But — something of our childhood impatience for spring remains — we couldn't wait! So the leaves are shooting up, and we're not at all sure the roots are keeping pace with them. We shall see if there will be blossoms . . .

Before the Christmas season is too far past, we must report that during the holidays Mrs. J. Leroy Hostetter, Bruce Avenue looked out her window one day and saw three deer!

She could hardly believe her eyes, but there they were, big as life! A noise startled them and they ran down the hill. Later, Mrs. Vernon Kinsey, Angle Street said she wished she had known they came in her direction, for if she had, she might have shot them with a bow and arrow!

But then, maybe it's just as well! If she had, Santa might have been minus Dasher, Dancer or Prancer next Christmas!

Always be kind to little, old ladies. The darndest people take karate lessons these days.
