certainly past!

Mrs. John Miller, Delta Street, had a rare privilege and honor this past week end. Drawn by the magnet of the cherry blossoms, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, their daughters, Stacy and Marty Carol, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoover and children, Scott, Cindy and Steve, spent Sunday in Washington, D. C.

They enjoyed the cherry blossoms, and many other places of interest in Washington, and attended services Sunday morning at the Washington National Cathedral. Mrs. Miller sat in the very seat for the services in which Mrs. Eisenhower had sat two weeks before during funeral services for her famous husband, General Dwight Eisenhower!

Young Democrats Meet

Mount Joy Young Democrats met Thursday evening, April 10, at the home of John Matoney Democratic candidate for mayor of Mt. Joy.

He first spoke to the group on the "important role they will play in the coming months and of "the challenges that lie before you."

Matoney said "Mount Joy will profit from your services." He gave a brief history of his life and spoke on his qualifications as a candidate for mayor.

During the coming months, he said, he and the other Democratic candidates will prove to the people how our governing bodies have:

- 1.—Been lax in their duties as true representatives of the people;
2.—Failed in the effective operation of various departments;

3.—Failed to take action to serve and protect tax dollars and.

4.—Failed to take their rightful place as leaders in Lancaster County.

Matoney went on to say that one of the most important projects today is to have a commitment from the State of Penna. to rebuild Main street through the Florin Ward. "If the installation of curbs is our first responsibility, then we should make haste in that direction," he said.

The next meeting of the Young Democrats will be held at the home of John Matoney on May 8, 9, at 7:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be Wilma Jane Dommel, Democratic candidate for for Donegal School Director at Large.

SCHOOL NOTES

The 4th, 5th, and 6th grades from Maytown, Marietta, and Seiler are visiting the Grandview library during the months of April and May.

Since none of these schools have a central library facility, many of the students have never been in a library or borrowed a book from a library.

Each class will become acquainted with the Grandview library which will serve as an example of other libraries the children may use. The children will be presented with the idea of the library as the "Wisdom of the Universe" contained not only in printed material, but also on filmstrips, record, pictures and globes.

Each child will have an opportunity to check out a book of his own choosing.

TO DISCUSS HOW TO COMBAT FRAUD SELLING
