Quartet to Sing At Glossbrenner

The public is invited to attend a Gospel Hymn Service to be presented by the Senior Choir of Glossbrenner United Methodist church, Church and Angle Streets, on Sunday, May 18, at 7:30 p.m. The featured group of the evening will be the Lamplighters.

The group consists of four men—Jerry Landis, tenor; Ed Moshier, emcee, spokesman, and baritone; Dick Shenk, lead; and Bob Stauffer, bass.

Traveling extensively throughout the East, the Lamplighters spend much of their time spreading the Gospel through song and spoken word. The four men not only love the music they sing, but have an intense interest in the audience they sing to. This, coupled with an abundance of talent, makes them a favorite wherever they go.

QUARTET TO SING
On Sunday, May 18, 7:30 p.m., the Lamplighter Quartet, sponsored by the Senior Choir of Glossbrenner United Methodist church, will present a Gospel Hymn Service in Glossbrenner church. The offering from this will be used to purchase new choir gowns. The public is invited.

SACRED CONCERT
The David L. George family, Allentown will present a program of sacred music in the Florin Church of the Brethren, Bruce Avenue on Sunday evening, May 25 at 7:30 o'clock.

Featured on the program will be English hand bells, a marimba organ and vocal selections.

St. Mark's 109th Birthday

Starting at the 10:15 service, Bishop Hermann W. Kaebnick will speak and 50-year members will be recognized.

At 7 p. m. Donald Barnhouse, news analyst and commentator from Philadelphia will speak. Barnhouse is called on for comment on the background and significance of both local international events. His concise and perceptive comments have made him one of Philadelphia's most respected news personalities.

FROM THE QUEEN

Is the Coach Really Gold?

In March Mrs. Wittle's 3rd grade room at Grandview read a story about a golden coach. The question was asked, if the coach was made of gold, or metal and wood painted. The third graders decided to write to Queen Elizabeth to find out. A letter was sent air mail to Buckingham Palace, London England.

May 8, 1969, the answer arrived. Margaret Hay, The Queen's Lady-in-Waiting replied in the following letter to Brian Golden.

"Dear Brian, I am commanded by the Queen to write and thank you and all your friends in

Win Legion Awards

Four W. I. Beahm Junior high school pupils have been given the 1969 American Legion Awards.

Presentation was made on Monday, May 12, at a special assembly program at which Morgan K. West Jr., senior chief petty officer of the United States Naval Reserves, was the speaker.

The honors went to Heather Mumma, Debra Meckley, Gregory McKain and William Lenox. Selection was made on the basis of scholarship, service, Americanism leadership and courage and the winners were named by the students and teachers.

Three winners of the same honor last year were in charge of the program — Mark Gainer, Leslie Engle and Joan Little.

Dr. Mays to Speak

Dr. Morley J. Mays, Elizabethtown college President and this year's Annual Conference Moderator for the Church of the Brethren, will speak in the Florin Church of the Brethren, this Sunday evening, May 18, at 7:30 p. m.

"Issues of the Louisville Annual Conference" will be the theme of Dr. Mays discussion to which conference delegates and members of nearby Brethren churches are being invited to attend.

The public is invited to this service and the reception to follow.

delphia's most respected news personalities.

When Barnhouse speaks of the impact of science and technology on the news of the day, he speaks as one who holds a college degree in mathematics and has done work in nuclear physics. When he talks about the problems of education, he talks as one who was himself a teacher for three years. He has worked on a farm, in a gas station, a shipyard, a factory and a small business. He also has done graduate work in theology, philosophy and political science.

Toppin Is Given High State Job

Governor Shafer has announced the appointment of John B. Toppin, 132 South Market St., as deputy secretary of banking, succeeding Fred Wigfield Jr., who retired last month.

Toppin has served with the department since 1946 in all examiner positions, including supervising examiner and executive assistant to Banking Secretary G. Allen Patterson.

Toppin's salary in the new job will be $17,839.

He joined the Department of Banking in 1946 as a state examiner after service in the U. S. Army.

Prior to military service, he was a teller in the First National Bank of Mount Joy.

A native of Mount Joy, Toppin attended Franklin and Marshall College and was graduated with a degree in sociology in 1938. He entered military service in '43.

During 1960 and 1961, Topping served as chairman of the Mount Joy Borough Authority.

Toppin and his wife, Marian, are the parents of a son and daughter, John Toppin II, who is a member of this year's graduating class at Elizabethtown College, and Mrs. J. Wylie Bradley of Alexandria, Va.
