

Busy Month For Lutheran Women

The month of November will be a busy time for the Ladies of Trinity Lutheran church, beginning Monday, Nov. 3, when the LCW executive board met at 7:30 p. m. in the Kindergarten room.

At the same time other women met in the church basement to continue working on the Christom project. Mrs. Helen Breneman and Mrs. Eleanor Ruhl are in charge of this project. To date about 85 Christoms have been completed for the Church Christmas tree.

Thursday evening, Nov. 6, members of LCW will go to the Lutheran Townhouse in Lancaster to entertain the guests with games and refreshments. In charge of the games are Mrs. Bruce Brown, Mrs. LeRue Reinhart and Mrs. Larry Boozer. In charge of the entertainment are Mrs. Carol Miller and Mrs. Evelyn Duke. The First, Second, Third and Fourth Grade Sunday School classes will sing eight songs for the guests. Mrs. Pat Shearer, Mrs. Janet Dommel, Miss Elsie Lefever, Mrs. Linda Boozer and Mrs. Judy Weller are in charge of refreshments. They will leave at 6:25 p.m. from the church.

Regular Circle meeting will be held on Monday, Nov. 10, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 11 at 7:30 p. m. and Wednesday, November 12, afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Floy Gilbert.

A request is made that all mothers whose children used an old sheet to be a Halloween ghost please give this sheet to someone at the church—it can be used in making bed pads which are so urgently needed at the Lutheran Home. If you have any torn sheets or pillow cases — please give them to any Lutheran church woman who will see that they get to Mrs. Fanny Zeager or Mrs. Paul Sentz.

WEDDINGS

MATEER — BIXLER

The marriage of Miss Frances Martin Bixler and Gene Edwin Mateer was solemnized Friday, Oct. 31, at 7 p.m. in the Donegal Presbyterian church, Mount Joy R1. The Rev. Herbert E. Moyer officiated. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Bixler, Marietta R1; parents of the bridegroom are Walter Mateer, 276 Marietta Ave., Mount Joy, and Mrs. Myrtle Mateer, 728 Square St., Mount Joy.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attended by her sister Miss Florence M. Bixler, as maid of honor, Glenn Allen, step-brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Philip M. Bixler, brother of the bride, and David Allen, step-brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social hall.

A graduate of Donegal high school, the bride is employed by the Lancaster County Board of Assistance. Her husband also was graduated from Donegal H. S. and served three years in the U. S. Army, with one year in Vietnam. He is employed by Alcoa.

A shower honoring the bride was given by her sisters in the home of Mrs. Jay L. Bixler. The parents of the bridegroom hosted a rehearsal party.

The couple will reside at Manheim R2.

ALLEN — SPENCE

The marriage of Miss De Etta Spence of Poplar street, Columbia and Mr. Glenn Allen, 276 Marietta ave., Mount Joy was solemnized in the Mount Joy Church of God at 11 a.m. Oct. 25, with the Rev. Ralph C. Warner officiating.

'Mini' Schedule At Donegal Hi

The Donegal Future Teachers' of America Club is sponsoring a "Mini Schedule Night" at Donegal H. S. on Thursday evening, Nov. 13. This program will give parents an opportunity to visit most of their son's or daughter's teachers.

Copies of the student's schedules will not be available on the night of the open house. Therefore it will be necessary to obtain the child's Monday schedule in advance of the program.

Parents should plan to register between 7 and 7:30 p.m. Following the registration there will be a short assembly program in the auditorium with music by the Donegal high school band. At 8 o'clock the class schedule will begin. It is important that parents follow the normal school day, spending a specified period of time with each teacher. At the close of the evening, all are invited to the cafeteria for refreshments.

BAKE SALE

There will be a bake sale at the Moose 5 & 10 in Elizabethtown on Saturday, Nov. 8, beginning at 10 a.m., for the benefit of the area retarded children. Donations may be brought between 9:30 and 10 a.m.

Beneath the hard, crusty exterior of a tough boss beats the heart of a hard crusty boss.

The couple is now residing at 3 North High street, Mount Joy.

SCHOOL NOTES

The W. I. Beahm Junior high school staff will have its annual Open House Tuesday evening, November 11, between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m.

The open house is planned in conjunction with American Education Week, which is from November 9 through Nov. 15.

Parents will be given an opportunity to speak with their child's teachers and discuss the child's progress in school.

The school staff is hoping that many parents will be able to attend this program so that satisfactory progress of our seventh and eighth grade pupils can be realized as this school term begins.

Chaplain of United States Army Reserves will speak at Grandview Open House on Veterans' Day, Nov. 11.

Starting at 7 p.m. with visitation to class rooms, a program will follow in the auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Featured on the program will be solos by Melody Mumma and Philip Wolgemuth. The speaker for the evening will be the Reverend William McAdoo, pastor of the Marietta Presbyterian church. He was Chaplain of the U. S. Armed Services and is presently chaplain of U. S. Army reserves.

A movie about the Apollo 11 trip to the moon will be shown Wednesday morning, November 12.

Hurt in Crash On 230 Bridge

A headon collision on the Little Chiques creek bridge on East Main street Sunday morning about 10:30 o'clock sent five to St. Joseph's hospital.

According to officials, a car operated by George R. Layman, 20, Neffville, was traveling west, and as he was passing another vehicle, he collided with a car operated by Elmer Wittle, 54, of 143 S. Market Ave., Mount Joy.

Both drivers were taken to the hospital along with three passengers of the Wittle car. They were taken to the hospital by Mount Joy and Elizabethtown ambulances.

The three passengers were Wittle's wife, Lillian, 50, Mildred M. Davis, 54, of 125 S. Barbara St., Lititz and Paul L. Davis, 76, of the same address.

Some things carry over from Pilgrim times. Today's football fan still encounters scalpers.

To start small screws which cannot be held in position with your fingers wrap a small piece of cellophane tape around both the head of the screw and the screwdriver. This will hold the screw until you get it started. Hint: The greater width of the tape should be stuck to the screwdriver so that when it is pulled from the screw the tape will be removed with it.

Robert E. Myers, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Myers, 222 N. Market Ave., was promoted to Army specialist four Sept. 27 while serving with the 5th Artillery in Germany.

Spec 4 Myers is a wireman in Battery A of the 5th Artillery's Battalion stationed near Babenhausen. He entered the Army in June 1968, completed basic training at Ft. Jackson, S. C., and was last stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla., before arriving overseas the following November.

The specialist was graduated in 1966 from Donegal high school.

Before entering the Army he was employed by the Hess Food Store.
