

Prayer Of The Week

The prayer this week is by George Dawson:

"Almighty God, who canst give the light that in darkness shall make us glad, the life that in gloom shall make us joy, and the peace that amidst discord shall bring us quietness! let us live this day in that light, that life, and that peace, so that we may gain the victory over those things that press us down, and over the flesh that so often encumbers us, and over death that seemeth for a moment to win the victory. "Thus we, being filled with inward peace, and light, and life, may walk all the days of this our mortal life, doing our work as the business of our Father, glorifying it, because it is Thy will, knowing that what Thou givest Thou givest in love. Bestow upon us the greatest and last blessing, that we, being in Thy presence, may be like unto Thee for evermore. These things we do ask, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Some early trains had young son of "Teddy" Roosevelt, who was killed in the war.

(magna cum laude) in 1935. Three years later he was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

During World War II he served with the U. S. Navy, in the thick of the beach-head landings at such places as Sicily, Tarawa, Saipan, Eniwatok and Guam. After settling in Plymouth Valley, near Norristown, he opened a law office in Philadelphia and in 1962 formed the firm of Broderick, Shubert and Fitzpatrick.

He and Mrs. Broderick have five children.

Weddings

and Andrew Hathaway, of State College, were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Holiday Inn, Lancaster.

The bride designed and made her gown of ivory silk and wool shantung trimmed with white fur at the neck and hemline. Her veil fell from a Juliet cap made from the same fabric as her gown. She carried a red rose with varigated and green holly, Christmas greens and holly-tipped streamers on a white fur muff.

The bride is a graduate of Donegal high school and Pennsylvania State university. She was employed as an Extension Home Economist in Carroll county, Md.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Donegal high school and State university and is employed as a mining engineer by the Hanna Division of Consolidation Coal Company of Cadiz, Ohio.

A shower honoring the bride was given by her bridesmaids at their home in Marietta. The parents of the bridegroom hosted the rehearsal dinner at Groff's Farm.

The bridal couple left for a honeymoon in Miami, Fla. Upon their return they will live in St. Clairsville, Ohio.

Of This 'n That

"What is a fondue pot?" It is a gaily-colored, deep chafing dish in a stand over a can of alcohol or a candle. On long, two-pronged forks that come with the pot, you place inch cubes of beef-steak, which are then cooked in the hot-butter-oil liquid in the pot!

Then the cubes are dipped in a variety of sauces, or eaten with great gusto!

Garlic bread and a tossed salad may be served with the meat, but we found that it's the meat which makes the meal—that, and the fun of cooking each bite yourself, as you eat it!

(Gourmet note: A warm shoofly pie with whipped cream makes an ideal dessert!)

Mrs. Jeanette Herr, who came into the Bulletin this week to renew her subscription, told us an interesting story.

She grew up in Manheim, and recalls that during World War I, when anti-German feeling ran high, the main street in town had to be renamed. It had been called "Prussian Street," but this was changed to "Main Street".

For a similar reason, the big riding stable between Lancaster and Lebanon, which had been called "Bismarck" was changed to "Quentin," in memory of a performance in the past several months has been at almost its lowest possible level and he added that "we almost have no direction to go but to improve."

The new mayor said that the image of the department in the community is very low when, as a matter of fact, police officers should be working extra hard at public relations.

At one point in the Monday night discussion, Zerphoy publicly pointed up the size of the problem by saying, "Our police work is terrible."
