Prayer Of The Week

The prayer this week is by Carl S. Patton:

"Almighty God our heavenly Father, who art not far from any one of us, but who art afflicted in all our afflictions and who carriest all our burdens upon Thine own heart; give to me and to all whom I love the divine gift of endurance, that whatever I am called upon to bear I may bear in the sense of Thy companionship, and that coming at last out of all my difficulties, I may be able to praise Thee for Thy continual help through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

MAYTOWN NEWS NOTES

Miss Grace Henderson

The Golden Age Club met last Tuesday with 31 members present. Mrs. Myrtle Warner and John Buller joined the club at this meeting. The program consisted of several readings by Miss Grace Henderson and John Buller showed slides and gave a travel talk on places of interest in Western United States and Pacific Northwest. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be Feb. 17.

Mrs. Roy Bixler, Marietta, R1, Carl Houseal of town and Mrs. Harold Ney, Marietta R1, are patients in Saint Joseph's hospital.

Phil Hossler, a student at West Chester State college, has been enjoying a vacation at his home for the past week.

The following are celebrating birthdays this week: Mrs. Hiram Mayers, Jan. 27, Miss Helen Hollenbaugh, on Jan. 27, Joe Keener, Jan. 27, and Mrs. Ellsworth Brandt, Jan. 28. Carl Houseal's was Jan. 21. I don't suppose one would say he celebrated his as he was a patient in St. Joseph's hospital that day.

Sunday, Jan. 25th at the annual congregational meeting at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church the following were elected to serve on the church council: Jack H. Frank, Mrs. Margaret Landis and Paul Linard. Last Sunday, they were installed. Other members of the council are Lt. Trobe Barnitz, Miss Dorothy Engle, Ivan Hess, William Howe, James Prowell and Lester Shenk.

The Rev. Daihl was the guest speaker at the fifth anniversary of the dedication of the new building at his home church at Green Spring last Sunday.

The El Shaddai Class of the Church of God met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lindemuth last Tuesday evening.

The American Legion Auxiliary meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Goldie Yordy, Monday evening, Feb. 9 at 8 o'clock.

The fire company has been kept busy answering ambulance and fire calls. We do have some very faithful volunteer firemen. It is only a matter of minutes after the siren blows until they are on their way. We do appreciate these services. We also realize there are many risks involved.

The regular circle meetings will be held Feb. 9, 10 and 11 and all members are invited to attend.

Congregation Holds Election

The Rev. Donald Moore Whitesel, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church announced the results of the election of Vestrymen held at the annual parish meeting this past Sunday evening.

John Binkley, Elizabethtown, William Lenox, and David Martin of Mount Joy were elected to serve on the Vestry for a period of three The retiring Vestrymen are: David Eler, William Romig, of Elizabethtown, and Charles Heisey of Maytown. The newly-elected men will be instituted at the 10:30 a.m. service of Morning Prayer on Sunday, Feb. 8.

It was announced that during the first service each Sunday will be at 9:15 a.m. The change from the earlier hour is made because Father Whitesel serves as Chaplain of the Masonic Homes during that month.

Women began smoking cigarettes after the First World War. Today we are seeing the results, says the American Cancer Society—the lung cancer death rate for women has jumped 400 percent.
