

GO TO Church on Sunday

Jimmy weighs a full ten pounds only when he's full of formula. But to his daddy, he's the weight of the whole world when its time for that 2 A.M. feeding. What a chore it is, but it allows plenty of time for thinking:

What kind of man will Jimmy grow up to be? What kind of father will I be to him? How can I keep him from following the wrong crowd? How can I help him to value the worthwhile things? How can I give him a solid foundation for life?

The responsibility that parenthood places on people is a heavy weight. A sensible man can't take it lightly. But the Church can help him bear it wisely. In church he will discover those enduring values, something against which to measure his own standards—and, as he finds these things for himself, he will pass them on to his son.

The church can't rear your children for you, but it can help you as you do the job. It's a champion weight-lifter.
