Eddie and Jake have been buddies since they could toddle. Together they hiked, fished, argued and leap-frogged the years away. If they weren't at our house, they were at Eddie's. Sundays, Eddie came along to church with us.

They did everything together, dated, played football, went to college. When they joined the Army, they went together.

Jake is coming home next week, but not Eddie. His mother brought his last letter over today. We cried together.

"Dear Mom," Eddie wrote, "Things are pretty bad. I'm glad Jake is here. We talk about home, about God, too. I know you and Dad never cared about church and all, but I think you'll be glad to know I've learned a lot about God from Jake. Whatever happens, I feel close to Him. I'm not scared."

Faith in God is your child's heritage. Take him to church today.
